Officials Disagree on Russian Sincerity About Desire to Bring End of Cold War

Cook May Be Alone For Post

Elliott Advised To Watch Health

The unofficial Republican county convention will be held Saturday, July 9, at 11 a. m. at the Municipal auditorium for the recommendation of candidates.

As has been predicted for the past several weeks Louis G. Bruhn, former district attorney, is expected to be unopposed for county judge to succeed County Judge John M. Cashin. Likewise District Attorney Howard C. St. John is expected to be named to succeed himself.

THE FIELD for county treasurer appears to have narrowed down to Supervisor Albert N. Cook of the first ward. Cook declined designation for the office of supervisor at the recent first ward caucus. Supervisor Frank G. Elliott of New Paltz, who had been mentioned prominently as a second candidate, has been advised by his physician to "take it easy" for some time following a slight heart attack and his name will not be presented before the convention Saturday, a leading Republican stated yesterday.

In addition to the recommendation for county treasurer, county judge, district attorney and coroner, there will be named two members to the Republican County Central Committee from each election district.

THE REPUBLICAN city convention will be held at the court house on Monday, July 18, at 8 o'clock when Mayor Frederick H. Stang is expected to be chosen to succeed himself.

Since the recent announcement by Alderman-at-Large Joseph Kelly, that because of business he would not seek renomination, there have been several names mentioned for that designation. However, it appears none of those being mentioned have a definite "edge" on the appointment and it may be that the race will be still open to several aspirants on the eve of the city convention.

DEMOCRATIC caucuses will be held in the city on July 14 from 8 to 9 p. m. and the Demo-

More Men Victims Of Lung Cancer

Albany, N. Y., July 6 (AP)—The State Health Department reports that lung-cancer fatalities among men climbed 50.5 per cent in 20 years in the part of New York state outside New York city.

A comparison of 1951-53 with 1931-33 showed a 50 per cent increase among women, the department's bureau of cancer control said yesterday.

The cause of the increase was not stated.

THE OVERALL cancer death rate was up 21 per cent in men and down 16 per cent among women.

The combined fatality rate for both sexes increased 3.4 per cent. The non-fatal incidence of the disease rose 20.3 per cent.

Dr. Paul Gerhardt, director of the bureau, and Dr. Vincent Handy wrote the report for publication in the State Journal of medicine.

They said more patients were surviving cancer because of earlier diagnosis and more adequate treatment than was available a generation ago. They added:

"THE INCREASED survivorship would be even more marked if it were not for the rapidly rising mortality in lung cancer, which tends statistically to keep the overall mortality high."

Sees Federal Control Coming

School Change Is Feared by Legion

Chicago, July 6 (AP)—The commander of the American Legion expressed concern today that the nation's schools may drift into federal control "if we fail to provide an alternative."

Legion Comander Seaborn P. Collins told delegates to the National Education Assn. convention that, although federal cotnrol is not the right answer, "something must be done, and done quickly."

"FRANKLY," said Collins in a prepared address, "I can offer no panacea today. I can only say something must be done, and done quickly, to meet the estimated shortage of approximately 290,000 elementary schoolteachers by 1960."

He said also there will be a need over the next five years for an estimated 720,000 public elementary and secondary classrooms and related facilities. He said the estimated capital outlay for these facilities is 28 billion dollars.

The NEA currently is supporting a bill pending in Congress which provides for a 400 million dollar per year expenditure of federal funds for four years, to

$5,750,000 for Flood Control

Two Houses Agreed On Total for State

Washington, July 6 (AP)—The Senate and House are agreed on appropriating $5,750,000 for flood control and navigation projects in New York state. The Senate would apropriate an additional $100,000 for planning a project in Endicott, Johnson City and Vestal.

The Senate passed a $563,763,000 appropriation bill yesterday for the fiscal year that began Friday. The House previously had voted $520,219,000. A Senate-House conference committee will seek to resolve the difference. President Eisenhower, in his budget, had recommended spending $518,975,000.

Both houses would spend $2,400,000 for Niagara remedial work, two million dollars for Buffalo harbor, a million for a Staten Island rapid transit bridge and $350,000 for work at Wellsville.

They are agreed on $36,000 for

First Negro Is Appointed As Supreme Court Justice

Albany, N. Y., July 6 (AP) — Gov. Harriman today appointed a negro as a justice of state Supreme Court.

Judge Harold A. Stevens of Manhattan's general sessions (criminal) court is the first of his race to serve on Supreme Court. He fills a vacancy in the first department caused by the death last February of Justice Thomas J. Corcoran of Manhattan. The post pays $28,000 a year.

Stevens, 48, is a Democrat and a former assemblyman. He will serve until Dec. 31, 1955. Next fall, voters in the first department will elect a justice for a full 14-year term.

Stevens is a native of John's Island, S. C., and a graduate of Benedict College in Columbia, S. C. He received his law degree from Boston College in 1936.

He represented Manhattan's 13th assembly district in the As-

No Fatalities On Thruway

Albany, July 6 (AP)—Motorists traveled about 16,500,000 miles on the state thruway over the Fourth of July weekend without a traffic fatality, the Thruway Authority reported yesterday.

Five personal injuries were reported in 22 traffic accidents during the Friday-Monday period, the authority said. An estimated $266,100 in tolls were collected in the four days.

The authority collected $214,684 in tolls for 17,493,943 vehicle miles on the four-day Memorial Day weekend.

About 248,000 vehicle trips were made on the July 4 weekend. This compared with 216,135 trips during the Memorial Day weekend.

Two Boys Held in Fatality

Croton Falls, N. Y., July 6 (AP)—Two Massachusetts boys were held by Westchester county authorities today after a stolen car crashed into another auto, killing a New York city man and his son.

The prisoners are David Cotter, 17, named as driver of the stolen car, and James Waddington, 14, both of Taunton, Mass.

Cotter waived examination here yesterday before Justice of the Peace Clinton Haight and was sent to the county jail to await grand jury action on a charge of "culpable criminal negligence in the operation of a motor vehicle, resulting in death."

THE WADDINGTON boy was sent to a children's shelter by County Judge George M. Fanelli pending action by the Children's Court.

Victims of the crash, early yesterday, were Reginald Mehling, 50, a truck driver, of 104-17 134th street, Richmond Hill, Queens, who died at the scene, and his son, Robert, 18, a high school pupil, who died four hours later at Northern Westchester Hospital, Mount Kisco.

The father, a widower, had been driving home with his son from an upstate New York holiday.

AUTHORITIES gave this account of the crash and arrests:

Cotter and Waddington, fleeing in a stolen car from pursuing state police, crashed at high speed into the rear of the Mehling car about 3 a. m. in trying to pass it on a highway here. The impact hurled the Mehling car against a tree.

The two teen-agers, bruised but not seriously hurt, fled into a nearby woods. They were captured 10 hours later at separate spots in dense woods a few miles from this metropolitan suburb. Police fired warning

Seizure Is Considered In Strike

Capital Transit Tieup in 6th Day

Washington, July 6 (AP) — A House committee prepared to consider seizure legislation today as the capital's transit strike rolled into its sixth day without a break in sight.

The House District Committee scheduled a special meeting to take up a bill by Rep. Broyhill (R-Va.) to authorize seizure by the District of Columbia government of the Capital Transit Co. system. The bill would empower the city to run the system under a "no strike" ban.

MEANWHILE, the district commissioners, ruling body of the city, arranged for a new mediation effort, this time at a meeting with the executive board of the striking AFL Transit Workers Union.

A similar session yesterday with Capital Transit's board of directors produced no progress beyond what Commissioner Samuel Spencer said were "one or two ideas we're going to pursue further."

Federal mediators, meeting separately with company and union officials, also tried to break the deadlock, but without success.

E. CLEVELAND Giddings, Capital Transit vice president, told newsmen the company has "made no offer." Giddings indicated he intended this statement as a refutation of previous reports of a proposal to the firm's 2,400 striking bus and street car operators and mechanics.

The AFL workers are seeking wage increases and various fringe benefits. The company contends it cannot afford to meet

Gallop to Open Uptown Branch

H. Gallop, jewelry and electric appliances, 5 East Strand, will celebrate its 37th anniversary this Friday, July 8, with the establishment of a branch store at 41 North Front street.

It was announced today that Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Gallop and Mrs. Fannie Gallop, widow of Harry Gallop who founded the business, had purchased the stock of Mike Levine, watchmaker and jeweler. Mr. Levine is planning to move to California. The Gallop firm will occupy the premises formerly occupied by Levine.

THE STORE is being completely renovated and redecorated and will have a new set of showcases, it was said.

Convicts Revolt, Assume Command

Walla Walla, Wash., July 6 (AP)—Seven state prison officers, seized at knifepoint in a revolt against prison discipline, today still were held captive by a handful of rebelling inmates who couldn't agree on terms for their release.

A series of conferences between state and prison officials and leaders of the revolt ended shortly before last midnight without any agreement to free the hostages.

Dr. Thomas Harris, state director of institutions, said the talks would resume about 8 a. m. today (11 a. m. EST).

An uneasy quiet settled over the penitentiary.

PRISON GUARDS reinforced by state patrol and county and city officers armed with rifles and sub-machine guns patrolled the walls and the area surrounding the prison. And a National Guard company was on standby orders for possible duty.

But inside the prison, most of the more than 1,700 inmates, apparently in obedience of a white-shirted convict—leader of some 33 persons directly involved in an angry revolt against prison disciplinary procedures and in control of the institution — remained in their cells.

THE HOSTAGES, including Associate Warden Ted Bezzerides, were believed in no immediate danger. Prison officials said, however, until arrangements could be made for their release, the main prison was in

103 Reading Is Below 3-Day Record in 1936

Sweltering heat gripped Kingston for the fifth straight day as the weatherman announced in New York that it shows no sign of abating before the end of the week.

The city engineer's office at city hall reported the high point in the unseasonal heat spell reached a blistering 103 degrees at 3:45 p. m., Tuesday. Despite the intensity of the temperature, Tuesday's figure did not shatter the record temperature set in 1936 when the thermometer hit 106 degrees on July 9, 13 and 14.

Although temperatures were predicted for the 90's today for the fourth consecutive day, the highest point reached up until shortly before noon today at the city engineer's office was 88 degrees. An Associated Press report out of Albany said the weatherman further predicted that continued high readings in the 90 degree bracket would continue at least through Thursday and Friday.

There is a chance of some local thundershowers this evening, the forecaster said, and they might bring a slight reduction in temperature for an hour or so.

However, the bureau warned "don't count too much on general relief; it isn't in the offing.

Need Time Food, Arms To Stock

Concessions Not Likely by Soviet

Washington, July 6 (AP)—A difference of opinion has developed among U. S. officials as to whether Moscow's current peace talk shows that Russia genuinely wants to end the cold war.

A majority of policy makers seems to believe such recent Russian gestures as the unprecedented apology for shooting down an American plane mean Moscow at least plans to offer concessions aimed at easing East-West tension.

THE GENEVA Summit conference opening July 18, in the view of these officials, promises to lead to a series of negotiations which could slow down the arms race and make a start toward solving critical European and Far Eastern problems.

An evidently smaller group of officials, however, describe this view as dangerously optimistic. They argue that no end to the cold war is in sight and that any concessions Russia may make will be superficial.

Russia's soft talk is explained by them as another and more skillful Soviet maneuver to block German rearmament.

BOTH SIDES appear to agree on one major point: Apparent agricultural difficulties and the arms burden are straining Russia's economy, and so the Kremlin leaders would like a breathing spell to concentrate on mechanizing farms and building up Russia's industrial base.

These two groups disagree, however, on how much Russia is prepared to give up in order to gain such a breathing spell.

The most optimistic officials say Russia could be pressed to lay a sizable price—an arms reduction plan including adequate inspection, German unification on terms suitable to the west and a slight easing of Russia's grip on its eastern European satellites.

IN OPPOSING this view, many intelligence officials contend there is no evidence Russia's economy is hurting badly enough to require her to make such sweeping concessions.

On the contrary, there offi-

Steel Wage Boost Costs 450 Million

New York, July 6 (AP)—The wage boost won by the CIO United Steelworkers will cost the steel industry about $450 million dollars a year, Iron Ore, the national metalworking weekly, said today.

This includes not only the direct pay increases but also subsequent rises in the cost of materials and services, it added.

The 15-cents-an-hour wage hike was followed immediately by the announcement of a steel rise averaging $7.50 a ton.

Iron Age commented as follows on the new situation in the steel industry:

THE PRICE increase was smaller than the last big boost of 1948. That year the steelworkers won an average increase of 13 cents an hour and steel prices went up about $10.50 a ton.

The one-day strike and the consequent loss of production threw the steel market "into utter confusion," blasting hopes that deliveries might be brought in line with promises in the near future. It also

Bathing Beach, New Forsyth Zoo Are Popular With Crowds During Hot Spell

Escaping the hot, humid weather of the Fourth of July weekend, more than 8,000 persons visited the Kingston Point bathing beach on the holiday, while 5,000 enjoyed its facilities at a peak hour on the same day, it was announced today by Mayor Frederick H. Stang.

The mayor reported that attendance on Saturday and Sunday was almost as big, pointing out that it was the largest attendance in the beach's operation since its opening last summer.

Parking facilities proved inadequate, Mayor Stang said, to handle the influx of bathers.

He also said that an enlarged bathing area has been roped off to reduce the danger of bathers being injured by speedboats while in swimming.

The mayor also said that bicycle racks have been installed to handle the youngsters bikes and thereby afford additional space, and a new raft for the enjoyment of bathers is under construction.

Complaints have been received, the mayor said, relative to the number of broken bottles in the beach area with occasional reports of injuries from broken glass.

"I'm making a sincere appeal to the bathers to please not dispose of bottles on the beach," the mayor said, "and I urge people to please return these bottles to the concession stand, or place them in the containers in which they are brought." He said that signs are being posted on the concession stand asking public cooperation in this matter."

As an added safety measure, the mayor reported a new traffic signal has been installed near

Steel Wage Boost Costs 450 Million

New York, July 6 (AP)—The wage boost won by the CIO United Steelworkers will cost the steel industry about 450 million dollars a year, Iron Ore, the national metalworking weekly, said today.

This includes not only the direct pay increases but also subsequent rises in the cost of materials and services, it added.

The 15-cents-an-hour wage hike was followed immediately by the announcement of a steel rise averaging $7.50 a ton.

Iron Age commented as follows on the new situation in the steel industry:

THE PRICE increase was smaller than the last big boost of 1948. That year the steelworkers won an average increase of 13 cents an hour and steel prices went up about $10.50 a ton.

The one-day strike and the consequent loss of production threw the steel market "into utter confusion," blasting hopes that deliveries might be brought in line with promises in the near future. It also

Bathing Beach, New Forsyth Zoo Are Popular With Crowds During Hot Spell

Escaping the hot, humid weather of the Fourth of July weekend, more than 8,000 persons visited the Kingston Point bathing beach on the holiday, while 5,000 enjoyed its facilities at a peak hour on the same day, it was announced today by Mayor Frederick H. Stang.

The mayor reported that attendance on Saturday and Sunday was almost as big, pointing out that it was the largest attendance in the beach's operation since its opening last summer.

Parking facilities proved inadequate, Mayor Stang said, to handle the influx of bathers.

He also said that an enlarged bathing area has been roped off to reduce the danger of bathers being injured by speedboats while in swimming.

The mayor also said that bicycle racks have been installed to handle the youngsters bikes and thereby afford additional space, and a new raft for the enjoyment of bathers is under construction.

Complaints have been received, the mayor said, relative to the number of broken bottles in the beach area with occasional reports of injuries from broken glass.

"I'm making a sincere appeal to the bathers to please not dispose of bottles on the beach," the mayor said, "and I urge people to please return these bottles to the concession stand, or place them in the containers in which they are brought." He said that signs are being posted on the concession stand asking public cooperation in this matter."

As an added safety measure, the mayor reported a new traffic signal has been installed near

Hervey and Mason Picnic Held

Woodstock, July 6 — Wilna Hervey and Nan Mason held their annual picnic at their home in Bearsville with a large group of friends attending.

This year Miss Hervey had as her guest her nephew, Colonel Cator, who has been visiting there. Colonel Cator it an air force pilot with headquarters at Maguire Air Force Base in New Jersey. He has recently been assigned as chief inspector, Atlantic Division, of the Military Air Transport Service (MATS). His duties include travelling up and down the Atlantic coast to inspect bases, Atlantic ocean island bases, and many installations throughout Europe and North Africa, connected with the movement of military passengers and cargo to Europe and return.

COLONEL CATOR was graduated from West Point in 1941. His daughter, Karen, has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. William Hitzig of Bearsville.

Dr. and Mrs. Hitzig, who also attended, brought with them four Japanese, two men and two women. Dr. Hitzig recently returned from Japan and Indonesia, where he attended the Afro-Asia conference at Bandung, and was accompanied by his daughter Cayla. He was a frequent visitor of Nehru's, and had many photographs of Mr. Nehru. He also had many discussions with Krishna Menon—Nehru's right-hand man in external and foreign affairs. Dr. Hitzig is also doctor to the Indian Consulate and to Krishna Menon. When a member of Nehru's staff became ill, and Dr. Hitzig attended him, Nehru proudly exclaimed, "There's nothing you can do for me, Dr. Hitzig, I'm in perfect health."

Dr. Hitzig's Japanese guests were Dr. Tomin Harada and Dr. Gore Ouchi, both surgeons of note in Hiroshima, and both are directors of the Hiroshima Atomic Bomb Treatment Council. With them was Mrs. Helen Yokoyama, who acts as liaison for the ABCC. The other girl was Miss Keiko Kawasaki, who was present in Hiroshima at the time of the atomic bomb attack. She is one of a group of 25 Japanese girls brought over to the U. S. A. for medical examination and surgery. They have been brought over here under the auspices of Dr. Hitzig, who is connected with Mt. Sinai Hospital in New York.

ANOTHER GUEST was Dr. Joseph Tomas, whose actual name is Joseph Shakuri Tomas, a native of Baghdad. Dr. Tomas, who is a spokesman for the Arab League, was educated in Baghdad, and admitted here nine years ago in Union College. He has spoken on many occasions on the radio in social and political groups. He also went to New York University for medical training, and majored in pathology. Dr. Tomas is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Vere Nessel. An important event in his life, Dr. Tomas said, was three years ago when he met Alga Arais, from Costa Rica, whose father was former governor of Costa Rica. He has arranged for Mrs. (Clementine) Nessel, well-known Woodstock accordionist, to be guest of honor next month in Costa Rica. He will sponsor her appearance in a concert at San Jose, capital of Costa Rica.

Among the guests who provided the the evening's entertainment were Sam Eskin, internationally known singer of folk songs, who recently returned from Mexico, Jamaica Europe and Israel, where he went to record folk music. Much of the folk music in Israel, he reported was Arab. He also visited Spain, Italy and Ireland. Eskin is going to do a series of programs for the Israel Government, and he has also been approached on contributing to a series of world folk music, including India, Middle East and Mexico.

EDWARD CHAVEZ also played his guitar and sang native Spanish music, and accompanied Louise Brokenshaw who danced. Folk songs were also sung by Ed Mann and Sidney Reisberg.

Also present at the party were Maud and Miska Petersham, authors and illustrators of children's books, Manuel Komroff in a bright red wig, who charmed children and adults alike with his electrified tie blinking colored lights; Harry Horowitz, who is a teacher in New York, and a pianist, and Mrs. Horowitz, who has appeared on educational radio and TV programs in New York over station WNYE.

Historical Group Talks Program

Woodstock, July 6—Alf Evers, president of the Wodstock Historical Society, called an emergency trustees meeting on Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Margaret R. Kenyon to discuss the program being planned for the present season. It was decided that the first meeting of the season would be held on Thursday, July 14, with a trip to the Greene County Historical Society's headquarters at Coxsackie. The "village tour" of Woodstock will be held at the August meeting, and the talk by Mr. Bellows on "Indians", along with a musicale to be in September. In October the Society will hold the Library meeting.

MR. EVERS undertook to be the leader of the "village tour" with visits planned to the Dutch Reformed Church, the glass factory and the old turning-mill in Shady, the Hasbrouck house in Willow and other points of historical interest. This tour is to coincide with the society's exhibition in the Woodstock bank window which is to be shown August 8 to 13.

Mrs. Herman Oxhandler reminded the trustees that 1955 is the 25th anniversary of the founding of the Woodstock Historical Society and that there should be appropriate publicity in connection with the events planned. Mr. Evers felt that the "tour" would attract many new members, and that publicity and posters should be arranged.

MRS. OXHANDLER also stated that the American Legion has kindly consented to store a vault for the Society's acquisitions on their premises, should one be required.

Mr. Evers, Mrs. Eva Beard, Mrs. Louise Zimm and Mrs. Oxhandler discussed at length the publication of the new boooklet and it was decided that Mr. Hervey White's article be eliminated at this time. The booklet will contain memorial articles in honor of the late Mrs. Marion Bullard together with a dedication to her, an article written by Mr. Evers and a memorial in honor of the late Mrs. R. R. Whitehead.

Lecture-Recitals Scheduled July 9

Woodstock, July 6—The second in the summer series of lecture recitals by Hanus A. Schimmerling will be held Saturday, July 9, at 8:15 p. m., at the Maverick Concert Hall. The program will be devoted to Czechoslovak and Yugoslav folkmusic, with performances by Ruth Cohn, Naomi Lieberman, Paula Neulander and Gladys Tandler. Mr. Schimmerling will be at the piano.

Included in the lecture will be general explanations about the ethnographic and historical past of the Slavic race; ethnographic and geographical facts about Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia; an explanation of the musical characteristics of the folkmusic of these nations (rhythm, tonality); and the influence of Slavic music upon the masters of classic art (Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven and others).

The performing artists will sing specimens of folkmusic from Bohemia, Moravia, Slovakia, Croatia, Serbia, Bosnia-Hercegovina, Montenegro and Macedonia.

Dr. Lujo Goranin of the Yugoslav Section of the United Nations has accepted the invitation of Mr. Schimmerling's to attend this recital.

The same program will be repeated on Sunday, July 10 in Bard College near Rhinebeck upon the invitation of the director of summer music program at Bard College.

Girl Scout News

Woodstock, July 6—The members of Girl Scout Troop 112 held their final activity as a group for the season with a camp-out last Wednesday night at the Girl Scout Camp grounds on the property of C. J. Van Rijn. The camp-out was made for the purpose of completing all the requirements for the Back Yard Camper badge.

The girls who participated were Bonnie Wilber, Ellen and Elsie Ross, Vera Van Rijn, Virginia Martin, Lynn Kinns, Marie Klippel, Carol Hefty, Jean Cousins, Valerie Fischer, Jean Wilson, Diane Shults, Barbara Longyear, Annette Haeussler and Judy Rapp. They were accompanied by their leaders, Mrs. Charles Rapp and Mrs. Paul Haeussler.

The girls prepared a supper of spaghetti, salad, chocolate pudding and lemonade, which was followed by a campfire with part singing under the moon, concluding with popcorn and a marshmallow roast.

No one ever expects to indulge in too much sleep during a camp-out and the tradition was kept at this outing. However, the night was spent in the woods followed by a hearty breakfast, each girl cooking her own. They prepared the meal with their hobo tin can stoves using buddy burners for fuel.

They also learned to do some lashing and made a table of sorts, dug a dry well for drainage, and learned the care and use of a jack knife. Each girl made a map of the area, pacing it off, and also learned to cook with charcoal.

Elsie and Ellen Ross also completed their First Class rank with this camp-out.

David Davidson Delivers Lecture

Woodstock, July 6—An enthusiastic audience heard David Davidson speak at Parnassus Square Galleries last Saturday evening on "How to Stay Alive While Writing."

He warned that no novelist should try to live from writing because the odds were against it. The solutions he offered were: let the writer work at another kind of a job; or teach writing; or to toss off some form of hack work to support his serious writing; or marry rich; or choose some government service—such as Hawthorne and BBC writers in England.

Each solution, however. Mr. Davidson said, has its drawback: Writers complain that a daytime job drains away their best energies, that teaching writing is a drain on the writer's own creative efforts, and hack work confuses the writer's standards. Marrying rich, he pointed out, makes for loss of self-esteem, and government service forces the mind into official thinking.

He named the exceptions in the writing field who have done hack work—Fitzgerald, Faulkner, Strindberg and others. Goethe, Plato and Hawthorne have been in government service.

"The answer," said David Davidson, "is stamina, unusual vigor and determination. These are as much a part of the good writer's equipment as his words, thoughts, etc. The writer who does not have this stamina will not be heard from. And the writer with an unusual amount of stamina will become a greater writer."

Woodstock, July 6—At the Republican Caucuss held at the Town Hall last Wednesday night, the following men were named as delegates to the Ulster County Republican Convention to be held in Kingston, Saturday, July 9: District No. 1, Township of Woodstock—Nelson Shultis, Stanley Shultis and Everand Short; District No. 2, Township of Woodstock—Lewis Wilson, John Egan and Fred A. Thiaz.

Sculpture Exhibit

Woodstock, July 6 — An absorbing exhibition of sculpture and painting opened last Sunday afternoon at the M. H. Sculpture Gallery. Among the outstanding pieces are Vincent Glinsky's Napoleon and Family, an appealing study in alabaster, small but massively grouped sleeping cats; Tom Penning's bluestone slab carved with the decorative figure of a Young Goat; Cleo Hartwig's charming elephant in Russian alabaster; and Harvey Fite's stately Mother and Child in wood. A piece which takes a prominent position is a group of three tormented heads, Lu Duble's The Road to Calvary in terra cotta. The work created a sensation when it was shown at the Whitney Museum in New York last winter. Alice Dunbar's apple wood Horse and Mitchell Fields' terra cotta Rooster were also noted with interest.

In the painting group were several vibrant oils on watercolor paper by Dan Gotteschalk, scenes in richly contrasting color of New Orleans, Trinity Church in New York and several Woodstock views. There were also a number of experimental works by the artist Two Clowns, painted with oil on gauze. Several skillfully handled still lifes by Andy Lukoch were also notable.

Hervey and Mason Picnic Held

Woodstock, July 6 — Wilna Hervey and Nan Mason held their annual picnic at their home in Bearsville with a large group of friends attending.

This year Miss Hervey had as her guest her nephew, Colonel Cator, who has been visiting there. Colonel Cator is an air force pilot with headquarters at Maguire Air Force Base in New Jersey. He has recently been assigned as chief inspector, Atlantic Division, of the Military Air Transport Service (MATS). His duties include travelling up and down the Atlantic coast to inspect bases, Atlantic ocean island bases, and many installations throughout Europe and North Africa, connected with the movement of military passengers and cargo to Europe and return.

COLONEL CATOR was graduated from West Point in 1941. His daughter, Karen, has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. William Hitzig of Bearsville.

Dr. and Mrs. Hitzig, who also attended, brought with them four Japanese, two men and two women. Dr. Hitzig recently returned from Japan and Indonesia, where he attended the Afro-Asia conference at Bandung, and was accompanied by his daughter Cayla. He was a frequent visitor of Nehru's, and had many photographs of Mr. Nehru. He also had many discussions with Krishna Menon—Nehru's right-hand man in external and foreign affairs. Dr. Hitzig is also doctor to the Indian Consulate and to Krishna Menon. When a member of Nehru's staff became ill, and Dr. Hitzig attended him, Nehru proudly exclaimed, "There's nothing you can do for me, Dr. Hitzig, I'm in perfect health."

Dr. Hitzig's Japanese guests were Dr. Tomin Harada and Dr. Gore Ouchi, both surgeons of note in Hiroshima, and both are directors of the Hiroshima Atomic Bomb Treatment Council. With them was Mrs. Helen Yokoyama, who acts as liaison for the ABCC. The other girl was Miss Keiko Kawasaki, who was present in Hiroshima at the time of the atomic bomb attack. She is one of a group of 25 Japanese girls brought over to the U. S. A. for medical examination and surgery. They have been brought over here under the auspices of Dr. Hitzig, who is connected with Mt. Sinai Hospital in New York.

ANOTHER GUEST was Dr. Joseph Tomas, whose actual name is Joseph Shakuri Tomas, a native of Baghdad. Dr. Tomas, who is a spokesman for the Arab League, was educated in Baghdad, and admitted here nine years ago in Union College. He has spoken on many occasions on the radio in social and political groups. He also went to New York University for medical training, and majored in pathology. Dr. Tomas is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Vere Nessel. An important event in his life, Dr. Tomas said, was three years ago when he met Alga Arais, from Costa Rica, whose father was former governor of Costa Rica. He has arranged for Mrs. (Clementine) Nessel, well-known Woodstock accordionist, to be guest of honor next month in Costa Rica. He will sponsor her appearance in a concert at San Jose, capital of Costa Rica.

Among the guests who provided the the evening's entertainment were Sam Eskin, internationally known singer of folk songs, who recently returned from Mexico, Jamaica Europe and Israel, where he went to record folk music. Much of the folk music in Israel, he reported was Arab. He also visited Spain, Italy and Ireland. Eskin is going to do a series of programs for the Israel Government, and he has also been approached on contributing to a series of world folk music, including India, Middle East and Mexico.

EDWARD CHAVEZ also played his guitar and sang native Spanish music, and accompanied Louise Brokenshaw who danced. Folk songs were also sung by Ed Mann and Sidney Reisberg.

Also present at the party were Maud and Miska Petersham, authors and illustrators of children's books, Manuel Komroff in a bright red wig, who charmed children and adults alike with his electrified tie blinking colored lights; Harry Horowitz, who is a teacher in New York, and a pianist, and Mrs. Horowitz, who has appeared on educational radio and TV programs in New York over station WNYE.

Historical Group Talks Program

Woodstock, July 6—Alf Evers, president of the Wodstock Historical Society, called an emergency trustees meeting on Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Margaret R. Kenyon to discuss the program being planned for the present season. It was decided that the first meeting of the season would be held on Thursday, July 14, with a trip to the Greene County Historical Society's headquarters at Coxsackie. The "village tour" of Woodstock will be held at the August meeting, and the talk by Mr. Bellows on "Indians", along with a musicale to be in September. In October the Society will hold the Library meeting.

MR. EVERS undertook to be the leader of the "village tour" with visits planned to the Dutch Reformed Church, the glass factory and the old turning-mill in Shady, the Hasbrouck house in Willow and other points of historical interest. This tour is to coincide with the society's exhibition in the Woodstock bank window which is to be shown August 8 to 13.

Mrs. Herman Oxhandler reminded the trustees that 1955 is the 25th anniversary of the founding of the Woodstock Historical Society and that there should be appropriate publicity in connection with the events planned. Mr. Evers felt that the "tour" would attract many new members, and that publicity and posters should be arranged.

MRS. OXHANDLER also stated that the American Legion has kindly consented to store a vault for the Society's acquisitions on their premises, should one be required.

Mr. Evers, Mrs. Eva Beard, Mrs. Louise Zimm and Mrs. Oxhandler discussed at length the publication of the new boooklet and it was decided that Mr. Hervey White's article be eliminated at this time. The booklet will contain memorial articles in honor of the late Mrs. Marion Bullard together with a dedication to her, an article written by Mr. Evers and a memorial in honor of the late Mrs. R. R. Whitehead.

Lecture-Recitals Scheduled July 9

Woodstock, July 6—The second in the summer series of lecture recitals by Hanus A. Schimmerling will be held Saturday, July 9, at 8:15 p. m., at the Maverick Concert Hall. The program will be devoted to Czechoslovak and Yugoslav folkmusic, with performances by Ruth Cohn, Naomi Lieberman, Paula Neulander and Gladys Tandler. Mr. Schimmerling will be at the piano.

Included in the lecture will be general explanations about the ethnographic and historical past of the Slavic race; ethnographic and geographical facts about Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia; an explanation of the musical characteristics of the folkmusic of these nations (rhythm, tonality); and the influence of Slavic music upon the masters of classic art (Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven and others).

The performing artists will sing specimens of folkmusic from Bohemia, Moravia, Slovakia, Croatia, Serbia, Bosnia-Hercegovina, Montenegro and Macedonia.

Dr. Lujo Goranin of the Yugoslav Section of the United Nations has accepted the invitation of Mr. Schimmerling's to attend this recital.

The same program will be repeated on Sunday, July 10 in Bard College near Rhinebeck upon the invitation of the director of summer music program at Bard College.

Girl Scout News

Woodstock, July 6—The members of Girl Scout Troop 112 held their final activity as a group for the season with a camp-out last Wednesday night at the Girl Scout Camp grounds on the property of C. J. Van Rijn. The camp-out was made for the purpose of completing all the requirements for the Back Yard Camper badge.

The girls who participated were Bonnie Wilber, Ellen and Elsie Ross, Vera Van Rijn, Virginia Martin, Lynn Kinns, Marie Klippel, Carol Hefty, Jean Cousins, Valerie Fischer, Jean Wilson, Diane Shults, Barbara Longyear, Annette Haeussler and Judy Rapp. They were accompanied by their leaders, Mrs. Charles Rapp and Mrs. Paul Haeussler.

The girls prepared a supper of spaghetti, salad, chocolate pudding and lemonade, which was followed by a campfire with part singing under the moon, concluding with popcorn and a marshmallow roast.

No one ever expects to indulge in too much sleep during a camp-out and the tradition was kept at this outing. However, the night was spent in the woods followed by a hearty breakfast, each girl cooking her own. They prepared the meal with their hobo tin can stoves using buddy burners for fuel.

They also learned to do some lashing and made a table of sorts, dug a dry well for drainage, and learned the care and use of a jack knife. Each girl made a map of the area, pacing it off, and also learned to cook with charcoal.

Elsie and Ellen Ross also completed their First Class rank with this camp-out.

David Davidson Delivers Lecture

Woodstock, July 6—An enthusiastic audience heard David Davidson speak at Parnassus Square Galleries last Saturday evening on "How to Stay Alive While Writing."

He warned that no novelist should try to live from writing because the odds were against it. The solutions he offered were: let the writer work at another kind of a job; or teach writing; or to toss off some form of hack work to support his serious writing; or marry rich; or choose some government service—such as Hawthorne and BBC writers in England.

Each solution, however, Mr. Davidson said, has its drawback: Writers complain that a daytime job drains away their best energies, that teaching writing is a drain on the writer's own creative efforts, and hack work confuses the writer's standards. Marrying rich, he pointed out, makes for loss of self-esteem, and government service forces the mind into official thinking.

He named the exceptions in the writing field who have done hack work—Fitzgerald, Faulkner, Strindberg and others. Goethe, Plato and Hawthorne have been in government service.

"The answer," said David Davidson, "is stamina, unusual vigor and determination. These are as much a part of the good writer's equipment as his words, thoughts, etc. The writer who does not have this stamina will not be heard from. And the writer with an unusual amount of stamina will become a greater writer."

SHOT-DOWN NAVY PLANE

For the Russians to regret any violation of international law is remarkable indeed. But we ought not to be too dazzled by the apologies they have now uttered for shooting down a U. S. naval patrol plane off Alaska.

Foreign Minister Molotov offered to pay for half the damage to the wrecked plane. This is certainly better than liability. The attack, so far as all reports indicate, was an unprovoked affair made in international waters.

Even though the Soviet Union, bent on pressing its world peace offensive, saw fit to offer some recompense, it could not quite bring itself to acknowledge sole blame for the incident. Molotov's note to our government charged that the U. S. plane also fired.

The 11 American crewmen, seven of whom were injured either by gunfire or in the emergency landing on a small island, insist that they did not have time to return the fire on the Russian fighter plane.

From their testimony we know where responsibility lies, and of course the Russians do, too. The question is: Why was the attack made?

Some will argue with Senator Knowland that the shooting was a deliberate act designed to test our defenses." It may well have been deliberate, but it seems doubtful that such an assault tests our defenses in any real way. Shooting down an occasional patrol plane doesn't tell the Reds much.

Some say the incident was planned for the very purpose of allowing Molotov to apologize thereafter, and thus appear before the world as magnanimous and genuinely concerned with peace. Again, this is rather far-fetched, since the Russians could not guarantee how the world or the United States would receive the news of this incident, even with an apology.

It is much more likely that the shooting was designed, as other similar incidents have been, to bluff our patrols away from the Siberian shore. Nothing like a few live bullets to discourage curiosity about a potential enemy's coastal activities.

It has always been Soviet policy to practice this sort of discouragement against anybody venturing within a few hundred miles of the Russian border, whether in Asia or Europe.

Our patrols surely do not content themselves with blandly flying about the international waters separating us from the Soviet Union. Though the fact is never publicly acknowledged, their job is to nose fairly close to the Soviet shore to detect defenses, especially any build-up operations.

Some of our downed aircraft may actually have been flying close in. But that is not really necessary in order to produce a Soviet gunburst. The Russians are interested in the effect, and for that purpose any U. S. plane within range of Russian fighers will do.

The do-it-yourself approach to odd jobs around the house could well become a spirited new philosophy for life as well. If more people tackled more of their problems themselves before running to others, perhaps we all would progress happier and faster.

An experiment is being conducted to test the extent of the memories of bees. We don't know whether bees can remember but we have experienced some stinging reminders which will help us to remember them, all right.

BETTER DAYS FOR EGYPT

American tourists abroad are shocked by the ghastly poverty they find in many countries, especially the Orient. One land where conditions are particularly bad is Egypt. There the government of Col. Gamal Abdul Nasser is trying to improve the lot of the peasant, who lives in a mud hut on a few cents a day, crippled by diseases of eyes and body, and doomed to short life.

The plan there is to add to the cultivable soil by irrigation. A mile west of the Nile, the life-giver of Egyptian agriculture, vegetables and fruits are being grown, and families are being settled. Two villages, each of 230 houses, are now ready.

It is refreshing to find an Egyptian government that is interested in the poor. Too often their spokesmen abroad have thought only of the welfare of their own class.

'These Days'

By GEORGE SOKOLSKY

"FACELESS INFORMERS"

Since the early 1940's, there has been evidence that a small but extremely active group of Communists had found their way into some metropolitan newspapers and into radio. The proof was of a nature that could not stand up in a court of law and whenever a Congressional committee even looked at these organs of communication, it was faced by the dynamite of interfering with freedom of the press. The subject was carefully avoided. The politicians were afraid of it.

But the truth often comes out in the most unusual way. Winston Burdett, a C.B.S. commentator, has, for more than a year, been talking to some active anti-Communists on how a man goes about clearing his name and appeasing his conscience. He wanted to tell all but few would listen. He wanted to tell all unreservedly, giving to his country the entire sorry story of how young men, often idealistic, are sucked into a conspiracy against their own country. It is not an easy thing to do.

No one could charge Burdett with being a faceless informer or a professional witness. He had a job with the Columbia Broadcasting System which he could keep better by being quiet than he could talking. No one had accused him of anything. In fact, when he began to tell his story, it looked as though he might be fired because of the publicity attending the disclosure of his record. It must be said for William Paley, the head of the C.B.S., that he quickly realized that if Burdett were dismissed while he was talking, it would frighten others from making a clean breast of it. Paley kept Burdett on in spite of the fact that unfavorable publicity for C.B.S. was bound to result from his disclosures.

Winston Burdett and Charles Grutzner and other newspaper men who were carried away by the propaganda activities first of Heywood Broun and then of Simon Gerson, New York State Communist leader, once having been enmeshed in the toils of the Communist conspiracy, they found it difficult to free themselves. When this story is told in full, it will be clear that the lawyers for some of the newspapers that employed some of those mentioned by Burdett advised their clients to suppress the information and threatened to have the men fired if they confessed and mentioned names.

When newspapers accept the advice of lawyers on public relations, they go to the wrong place for wisdom and experience. The suppression of news, even when it hurts, is not the business of any newspaper. "The New York Times" would have shown a better face if it had fired those who were members of its Communist cell than it does today when the story about the cell broke as a part of Burdett's confession. "The New York Times has known that at least two of its staff were involved weeks ago.

It is possible to draw false conclusions, however. Very few newspaper men in this country are Communists. A certain number joined the party when a Left-Wing element developed in the Newspaper Guild. Also some were Communists before they became newspaper men. Usually such men try to get copy-reading positions where they can slant the news, particularly by putting slanted headlines on correct stories. Too many publishers have taken a non-critical attitude toward such men, judging them on their merits as writers rather than on their ability as conspirators.

Some who were Left-Wingers when the Newspaper Guild was organized, by ability or seniority, have been able to move to executive positions where they can do great mischief, particularly in suppressing information unfavorable to their side or in ridiculing the opposition.

It would be incorrect to say that this is widespread over the country. It is correct to say that wherever these conditions exist, it is very harmful and damaging. It is also extremely difficult to prove that any of it is so, and publishers are loath to accuse men of being in a conspiracy when the information is nothing that could stand up in a court under the rules of evidence.

The value of the Burdett confession before the Eastland Committee is that it opens the door to a very ugly spot in radio and in the newspapers which now can be cleaned up. It also shows the importance of the ex-Communist in this fight.

That Body of Yours

DRUG TREATMENT FOR HYPERTENSION

Much confusion exists today regarding the use of the many presently available drugs for the treatment of hypertension—high blood pressure. During the past five years several promising agents have been studied and large numbers of patients have been treated with them. Unfortunately, when dealing with a disease such as hypertension, all results must be classified as preliminary for many years and no definite conclusions should be drawn regarding the effectiveness of any agent or method until a long follow-up period has elapsed and many patients have been treated. However, there has been sufficient time to evaluate a few, the most promising of which are hexamethonium, Ansolysen, Apresoline and reserpine.

Reserpine is a mild agent, produces few side effects, and is occasionally useful in the treatment of early nonprogressing hypertension. It is a valuable additional aid in treating the more severe forms but is of little value when used alone in these cases.

Apresoline is most effective in nonprogressing, moderately severe hypertension when combined with reserpine. In more severe cases it is helpful when used along with hexamethonium or Ansolysen.

Hexamethonium and Ansolysen are the most powerful and effective blood pressure lowering agents now available. When used carefully, good results may be obtained in about 30 per cent of cases of severe progressing hypertension. Long-term treatment by mouth with these drugs appears to be quite possible.

However, before using any drug treatment for hypertension, the patient must be carefully selected. It is a grave mistake to treat a patient with mild early hypertension with an extremely potent drug that might produce serious side effects. "Come, Let Me Take You Away From All This"

Edson's Washington News Notebook

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

Washington — (NEA) — The Democratic party and its 1952 presidential candidate, Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois now find themselves in pretty much the same boat that the Republicans occupied with Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York from 1944 to 1952.

Theoretically, the defeated candidate of the minority party remains its standard-bearer and titular head between elections. But it is pretty much of a figurehead job. Actually, the power is held by the defeated party's leaders in Congress.

This was the way it was with the Republicans all through the Roosevelt and Truman administrations. From 1944 to 1952 Governor Dewey was supposed to be head man. But the late Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio and the GOP House minority leader, Rep. Joe Martin of Massachusetts, called all the shots.

Taft was a conservative. Dewey headed the more liberal wing of the party. And the two men were political rivals in three conventions for the Republican presidential nomination.

SOMETHING OF THE SAME COLORATION is found in the Democratic situation today.

Governor Stevenson is a liberal. House Speaker Sam Rayburn and Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson both supported most of the New Deal program when that was the popular thing to do. Speaker Rayburn worked like a Turk for Stevenson in 1952.

But both Rayburn and Johnson are Texans first, able politicians and sufficiently independent to make it unnecessary for Governor Stevenson to do their thinking for them.

The program of acceptance or opposition to President Eisenhower's policies in Congress is therefore 100 per cent Rayburn-Johnson and zero Stevenson.

Dewey at least had the advantage of hanging onto his governorship between conventions. He could speak as head of the most populous and richest state of the Union, at any rate.

There is a further factor undercutting Stevenson's influence. Somehow, his speeches in the last two years don't seem to have been as good as they were during the 1952 campaign.

HE HAS CUT OUT much of the wisecracking and witticism which added color to his earlier utterances.

Satire is a subtle bill of goods to sell and, somehow, so many literal-minded people take their politics so seriously that the Stevenson brand of humor didn't get over with the masses, even though it was good, clean fun. He was never guilty of dirty cracks, which are a more acceptable coin of the political realm.

In January 1954 he issued some New Year resolutions for Democrats. He resolved to hold fast to liberal and humane traditions and to criticize only with forethought to constructive alternatives.

By March, at a Democratic southern states rally in Miami Beach, he was indulging in all-out criticism of the Eisenhower administration. He blamed the President for McCarthy. He charged there was a numbers racket in the security firings. He blasted the new look in foreign policy and defense policy.

In the 1954 congressional election campaign, in addition to picking holes in foreign policy moves, Stevenson attacked the GOP farm policy and said the U. S. economy was "shrinking." He couldn't have been wronger on the last, but the Dems won, anyway.

STEVENSON GAVE UP politicking and went back to practicing law after the election. Maybe that is the reason for his greater silence so far this year.

But the fact remains that with a Democratic Congress in Washington, the titular head of the party has not shown the talent for constructive leadership that his 1952 campaign promised.

Stevenson is considered more of a willing candidate for the presidency than he was before the '52 convention. He is a more open candidate than President Eisenhower is today a candidate for reelection, though that isn't saying much.

Many political observers are of the opinion that the Democratic standard bearer will have to start talking constructively, soon. If he doesn't, he runs a chance of being by-passed.

Escanaba, Mich. (AP) — The Upper Peninsula Development Bureau has set a $250,000, five-year program to attract industry to northern Michigan. Richmond, Va. (AP)—Richmond has lost another federal agency office. It might be missed if citizens knew why it was here in the first place. Today in Washington

Red's 'Summit' Desire Linked to Trade Pinch

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, July 5 — Slowly but surely the real reasons for the Soviet's desire for a conference "at the summit" and the motives for the super-friendly expressions by Khrushchev at the American Embassy in Moscow are beginning to emerge. They are to be found in a lengthy report to Congress just submitted by Harold Stassen as director of the Foreign Operations Administration. It tells the story of Soviet distress on the economic front.

WITHOUT STRONG industrial power, military armament today is difficult to produce. Hence, Soviet Russia knows she will lag behind in the armament race unless she can solve her difficulties in getting raw materials and machinery from the west.

Without a steady improvement in the standard of living, particularly in food distribution, Soviet Russia faces trouble internally and inside the satellite states.

Soviet Russia can turn for relief only to the Western countries. Moscow is willing to make political concessions in exchange for economic concessions.

WHAT THE STASSEN report reveals is that the Soviet bloc is being hurt by "transaction controls" and "transit controls." The first of these was imposed by the West to prevent evasions of export controls "by prohibiting sales of embargoed goods to the Soviet bloc by residents of free-world countries regardless of the source of the goods." The second set of controls was designed "to prevent the diversion to the Soviet bloc of embargoed items ostensibly bound from one free-world country to another." The Foreign Operations Administration says:

"With these co-operative measures, the free-world governments are now in a better position to combat illicit trade than they were six months previously."

Despite, therefore, some loosening up and broadening of definitions of strategic items which was criticized last year, the net result, in the opinion of the Foreign Operations Administration, has been to put a crimp in Soviet efforts to get heavy goods and materials.

"AS OF THIS writing," says the report, "no spectacular expansion of East-West trade has taken place singe August, 1954, when the free-world commodity lists were revised."

The fact is the Soviet economy is lopsided. It cannot provide the export articles to pay for the stuff imported. It's the same old exchange problem that other countries have faced, but it's a tougher proposition for the Soviets because of the embargoes placed by the West on trade with the Soviet bloc, including Red China.

The embargo policy is beginning to pay off. It is pinching the Soviets. This is important news to the free world, especially those on the pacifist side who continually argue that the only alternative to appeasement is preventive war. They do not realize that a third course is in actual operation today to prevent the outbreak of war. It is the inflexible decision of the Allies to keep strategic materials and machinery from getting into the hands of the Soviet bloc.

IF SOVIET RUSSIA had a free government—and only free governments can be trusted today— there would be no question about allowing trade of all kinds to be carried on with the peoples of the Soviet bloc. The trade weapon has become almost as important a deterrent of war as military armament.

To Russia's weakness in the manufacture of capitals goods must be added the salient facts now emerging about the agricultural difficulties of the Soviet and her satellites. The need to import grain is a glaring example of the breakdown of the breakdown of the Soviet agricultural economy. There is a big "breadbasket" behind the Iron Curtain but Communism has failed to develop it, and in that direction lies potential trouble on the political side and possible revolt, as the Hungarian food riots just reported may indicate.

MEANWHILE, the Soviets are trying to conduct a propaganda in Asian countries to give the impression they can help them out with economic aid. The Stassen report debunks those claims.

Everything now would seem to point to the dire necessity of a change of policy by the present rulers of the Kremlin. They face an internal as well as an external crisis. They need time for reconstruction — economic, military and political. There is only one way to get it—by conciliatory talk. There is only one place to seek it—in conferences with the heads of the Western governments.

THE SOVIETS will probably make some startling proposals at Geneva—for they need goods, and they will do almost anything to get machinery and materials. It's a time for wariness on the part of the free world. For it will be recalled that Hitler was allowed to import war materials from Allied countries up to almost the beginning of World War 2, just as militaristic Japan bought her materials in America in preparation for her subsequent attack on the United States. Economic policy has become in modern times as significant a part of national defense as military weapons themselves.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Memphis, Tenn., July 5—The terrible violence of the Southern Bell Telephone and Louisville and Nashville Railroad strikes is almost forgotten in the south. Thus, the lesson of this insurrection against established government has been lost. As Mrs. Lucille Miller so beautifully put it in her letter from the government insane asylum in Washington, "Human beings do not recall anguish unless they conjure it up—fortunately for the race."

The people of the southern tier of states always down to now have thought of themselves as quick-tempered, fiery direct actionists who could not be abused. Unfortunately, that is just an old superstitution. Even the Texans, who gloried in a reputation of gun-toting and prompt, personal redress of wrongs, are as docile and helpless as the people of Detroit, New York and Toledo when union goons, whether in small patrols or in insensate mobs, take to the street and highways to beat up individual citizens, dynamite bridges and cut cables.

The south is "going industrial" all the way from Savannah, Charleston and Norfolk to San Diego and Los Angeles.

But at the moment the old so-called deep south is under discussion. This means Virginia, the Carolinas, Mississippi, Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee, Louisiana and Texas. Arkansas is just beginning the switch from agriculture, mainly cotton, to "industry." Florida is unique in that northern people who were called Yankees 25 years ago, swarmed in during booms and countermanded the will of the old natives. Miami and Miami Beach, two of the most important cities, resemble New York in political and social temperament. Miami has had a rough experience with members of the Capone syndicate from Chicago who "organized" the floating waiters, bartenders and all such employes and never were seriously challenged although they were exposed by the name and reputation more than ten years ago. Thirty years ago the Klan would have lynched these carpetbaggers or chased them away.

The south, like the north, is not organized to resist the invasion of the unions. The hot-headed southerner is no better able to fight back than a man of similar spirit in Kohler, Wis., where, of late, the most frightful violence and persecution of non-striking, non-union workers has gone unrebuked by public authority. If the governor of a state, the sheriff of a county or the mayor and council of a city will not protect local citizens from assault, nocturnal outrage against their homes, vandalism against their automobiles and many other vicious practices of unions, the people will be overwhelmed, the employing companies will surrender and the unions will plant their captives in public offices as they have done in Michigan.

The south had her scalawags in reconstruction and another generation of the same sorry breed appeared to profiteer in the misfortune of the region when Roosevelt and his wife began to sneer at the "quality" and organize the "masses" against them. Now the scalawags, traitors to their homeland and their people, welcome the most brutal unioneers in return for money and votes.

In Nashville, Silliman Evans, of the Tennessean, and well-informed members of his staff, a Democratic group in the partisan political sense, recently told me that 100 municipalities in Mississippi have subsidized clothing factories and textile mills. Last winter the fact was published that garment factories below the line were actually paying a royalty to David Dubinsky's union in New York for each non-union worker employed therein, in lieu of dues. Dubinsky could take reprisals in this commerce. This certainly is a restraint of trade in the interests of a union which is, frankly and aggressively, a socialist political party in itself, but the anti-trust laws are not invoked. They may not bear on such practices, but there is no desire by public officials, federal or state, to bring them to bear. Even the FBI seems to have been apathetic about sabotage and vandalism in the Bell and L and N strikes although these crimes certainly came within the bureau's purview.

At the discussion of these Mississippi factories the question naturally occurred whether the local governments would become the actual employers of these local citizens if, in a depression, the northern operators should pull out. This is a very unstable industry with fierce competition and a high proportion of business failures. There are no giants in the women's clothing industry. Assuming that these cities and towns should undertake to run the factories themselves, would that be fascism? It would be something strange to this country but not necessarily fascism,

SHOT-DOWN NAVY PLANE

For the Russians to regret any violation of international law is remarkable indeed. But we ought not to be too dazzled by the apologies they have now uttered for shooting down a U. S. naval patrol plane off Alaska.

Foreign Minister Molotov offered to pay for half the damage to the wrecked plane. This is certainly better than liability. The attack, so far as all reports indicate, was an unprovoked affair made in international waters.

Even though the Soviet Union, bent on pressing its world peace offensive, saw fit to offer some recompense, it could not quite bring itself to acknowledge sole blame for the incident. Molotov's note to our government charged that the U. S. plane also fired.

The 11 American crewmen, seven of whom were injured either by gunfire or in the emergency landing on a small island, insist that they did not have time to return the fire on the Russian fighter plane.

From their testimony we know where responsibility lies, and of course the Russians do, too. The question is: Why was the attack made?

Some will argue with Senator Knowland that the shooting was a deliberate act designed to test our defenses." It may well have been deliberate, but it seems doubtful that such an assault tests our defenses in any real way. Shooting down an occasional patrol plane doesn't tell the Reds much.

Some say the incident was planned for the very purpose of allowing Molotov to apologize thereafter, and thus appear before the world as magnanimous and genuinely concerned with peace. Again, this is rather far-fetched, since the Russians could not guarantee how the world or the United States would receive the news of this incident, even with an apology.

It is much more likely that the shooting was designed, as other similar incidents have been, to bluff our patrols away from the Siberian shore. Nothing like a few live bullets to discourage curiosity about a potential enemy's coastal activities.

It has always been Soviet policy to practice this sort of discouragement against anybody venturing within a few hundred miles of the Russian border, whether in Asia or Europe.

Our patrols surely do not content themselves with blandly flying about the international waters separating us from the Soviet Union. Though the fact is never publicly acknowledged, their job is to nose fairly close to the Soviet shore to detect defenses, especially any build-up operations.

Some of our downed aircraft may actually have been flying close in. But that is not really necessary in order to produce a Soviet gunburst. The Russians are interested in the effect, and for that purpose any U. S. plane within range of Russian fighers will do.

The do-it-yourself approach to odd jobs around the house could well become a spirited new philosophy for life as well. If more people tackled more of their problems themselves before running to others, perhaps we all would progress happier and faster.

An experiment is being conducted to test the extent of the memories of bees. We don't know whether bees can remember but we have experienced some stinging reminders which will help us to remember them, all right.

BETTER DAYS FOR EGYPT

American tourists abroad are shocked by the ghastly poverty they find in many countries, especially the Orient. One land where conditions are particularly bad is Egypt. There the government of Col. Gamal Abdul Nasser is trying to improve the lot of the peasant, who lives in a mud hut on a few cents a day, crippled by diseases of eyes and body, and doomed to short life.

The plan there is to add to the cultivable soil by irrigation. A mile west of the Nile, the life-giver of Egyptian agriculture, vegetables and fruits are being grown, and families are being settled. Two villages, each of 230 houses, are now ready.

It is refreshing to find an Egyptian government that is interested in the poor. Too often their spokesmen abroad have thought only of the welfare of their own class.

'These Days'

"FACELESS INFORMERS"

Since the early 1940's, there has been evidence that a small but extremely active group of Communists had found their way into some metropolitan newspapers and into radio. The proof was of a nature that could not stand up in a court of law and whenever a Congressional committee even looked at these organs of communication, it was faced by the dynamite of interfering with freedom of the press. The subject was carefully avoided. The politicians were afraid of it.

But the truth often comes out in the most unusual way. Winston Burdett, a C.B.S. commentator, has, for more than a year, been talking to some active anti-Communists on how a man goes about clearing his name and appeasing his conscience. He wanted to tell all but few would listen. He wanted to tell all unreservedly, giving to his country the entire sorry story of how young men, often idealistic, are sucked into a conspiracy against their own country. It is not an easy thing to do.

No one could charge Burdett with being a faceless informer or a professional witness. He had a job with the Columbia Broadcasting System which he could keep better by being quiet than he could talking. No one had accused him of anything. In fact, when he began to tell his story, it looked as though he might be fired because of the publicity attending the disclosure of his record. It must be said for William Paley, the head of the C.B.S., that he quickly realized that if Burdett were dismissed while he was talking, it would frighten others from making a clean breast of it. Paley kept Burdett on in spite of the fact that unfavorable publicity for C.B.S. was bound to result from his disclosures.

Winston Burdett and Charles Grutzner and other newspaper men who were carried away by the propaganda activities first of Heywood Broun and then of Simon Gerson, New York State Communist leader, once having been enmeshed in the toils of the Communist conspiracy, they found it difficult to free themselves. When this story is told in full, it will be clear that the lawyers for some of the newspapers that employed some of those mentioned by Burdett advised their clients to suppress the information and threatened to have the men fired if they confessed and mentioned names.

When newspapers accept the advice of lawyers on public relations, they go to the wrong place for wisdom and experience. The suppression of news, even when it hurts, is not the business of any newspaper. "The New York Times" would have shown a better face if it had fired those who were members of its Communist cell than it does today when the story about the cell broke as a part of Burdett's confession. "The New York Times has known that at least two of its staff were involved weeks ago.

It is possible to draw false conclusions, however. Very few newspaper men in this country are Communists. A certain number joined the party when a Left-Wing element developed in the Newspaper Guild. Also some were Communists before they became newspaper men. Usually such men try to get copy-reading positions where they can slant the news, particularly by putting slanted headlines on correct stories. Too many publishers have taken a non-critical attitude toward such men, judging them on their merits as writers rather than on their ability as conspirators.

Some who were Left-Wingers when the Newspaper Guild was organized, by ability or seniority, have been able to move to executive positions where they can do great mischief, particularly in suppressing information unfavorable to their side or in ridiculing the opposition.

It would be incorrect to say that this is widespread over the country. It is correct to say that wherever these conditions exist, it is very harmful and damaging. It is also extremely difficult to prove that any of it is so, and publishers are loath to accuse men of being in a conspiracy when the information is nothing that could stand up in a court under the rules of evidence.

The value of the Burdett confession before the Eastland Committee is that it opens the door to a very ugly spot in radio and in the newspapers which now can be cleaned up. It also shows the importance of the ex-Communist in this fight.

That Body of Yours

DRUG TREATMENT FOR HYPERTENSION

Much confusion exists today regarding the use of the many presently available drugs for the treatment of hypertension—high blood pressure. During the past five years several promising agents have been studied and large numbers of patients have been treated with them. Unfortunately, when dealing with a disease such as hypertension, all results must be classified as preliminary for many years and no definite conclusions should be drawn regarding the effectiveness of any agent or method until a long follow-up period has elapsed and many patients have been treated. However, there has been sufficient time to evaluate a few, the most promising of which are hexamethonium, Ansolysen, Apresoline and reserpine.

Reserpine is a mild agent, produces few side effects, and is occasionally useful in the treatment of early nonprogressing hypertension. It is a valuable additional aid in treating the more severe forms but is of little value when used alone in these cases.

Apresoline is most effective in nonprogressing, moderately severe hypertension when combined with reserpine. In more severe cases it is helpful when used along with hexamethonium or Ansolysen.

Hexamethonium and Ansolysen are the most powerful and effective blood pressure lowering agents now available. When used carefully, good results may be obtained in about 30 per cent of cases of severe progressing hypertension. Long-term treatment by mouth with these drugs appears to be quite possible.

However, before using any drug treatment for hypertension, the patient must be carefully selected. It is a grave mistake to treat a patient with mild early hypertension with an extremely potent drug that might produce serious side effects. Once the decision to treat a patient is made, in view of the unfavorable outlook if nt treated, the physician and patient must be prepared to "battle through" the side effects which are to be expected. Many patients are not warned about these side effects and are greatly disturbed by them but if properly instructed, they will continue treatment.

We must remember that all results so far are preliminary and cannot be considered of great significance until there have been careful follow-up studies of large series of patients over the next 5 to 10 years. It will then be necessary to compare survival rates and mortality rates of the group of patients treated with these drugs with those not so treated. Results at present, after three years, are encouraging however.

SH-hhhh!

Richmond, Va. (AP)—Richmond has lost another federal agency office. It might be missed if citizens knew why it was here in the first place. It was a hush-hush section of the State Department housed for some months behind a set of double doors in the Lombardy street federal office building. No one would say what it did or why it moved.

The U. S. public and private debt rose about 26 million dollars in 1954 to 709 million dollars.

Red's 'Summit' Desire Linked to Trade Pinch

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Washington, July 5 — Slowly but surely the real reasons for the Soviet's desire for a conference "at the summit" and the motives for the super-friendly expressions by Khrushchev at the American Embassy in Moscow are beginning to emerge. They are to be found in a lengthy report to Congress just submitted by Harold Stassen as director of the Foreign Operations Administration. It tells the story of Soviet distress on the economic front.

WITHOUT STRONG industrial power, military armament today is difficult to produce. Hence, Soviet Russia knows she will lag behind in the armament race unless she can solve her difficulties in getting raw materials and machinery from the west.

Without a steady improvement in the standard of living, particularly in food distribution, Soviet Russia faces trouble internally and inside the satellite states.

Soviet Russia can turn for relief only to the Western countries. Moscow is willing to make political concessions in exchange for economic concessions.

WHAT THE STASSEN report reveals is that the Soviet bloc is being hurt by "transaction controls" and "transit controls." The first of these was imposed by the West to prevent evasions of export controls "by prohibiting sales of embargoed goods to the Soviet bloc by residents of free-world countries regardless of the source of the goods." The second set of controls was designed "to prevent the diversion to the Soviet bloc of embargoed items ostensibly bound from one free-world country to another." The Foreign Operations Administration says:

"With these co-operative measures, the free-world governments are now in a better position to combat illicit trade than they were six months previously."

Despite, therefore, some loosening up and broadening of definitions of strategic items which was criticized last year, the net result, in the opinion of the Foreign Operations Administration, has been to put a crimp in Soviet efforts to get heavy goods and materials.

"AS OF THIS writing," says the report, "no spectacular expansion of East-West trade has taken place singe August, 1954, when the free-world commodity lists were revised."

The fact is the Soviet economy is lopsided. It cannot provide the export articles to pay for the stuff imported. It's the same old exchange problem that other countries have faced, but it's a tougher proposition for the Soviets because of the embargoes placed by the West on trade with the Soviet bloc, including Red China.

The embargo policy is beginning to pay off. It is pinching the Soviets. This is important news to the free world, especially those on the pacifist side who continually argue that the only alternative to appeasement is preventive war. They do not realize that a third course is in actual operation today to prevent the outbreak of war. It is the inflexible decision of the Allies to keep strategic materials and machinery from getting into the hands of the Soviet bloc.

IF SOVIET RUSSIA had a free government—and only free governments can be trusted today— there would be no question about allowing trade of all kinds to be carried on with the peoples of the Soviet bloc. The trade weapon has become almost as important a deterrent of war as military armament.

To Russia's weakness in the manufacture of capitals goods must be added the salient facts now emerging about the agricultural difficulties of the Soviet and her satellites. The need to import grain is a glaring example of the breakdown of the breakdown of the Soviet agricultural economy. There is a big "breadbasket" behind the Iron Curtain but Communism has failed to develop it, and in that direction lies potential trouble on the political side and possible revolt, as the Hungarian food riots just reported may indicate.

MEANWHILE, the Soviets are trying to conduct a propaganda in Asian countries to give the impression they can help them out with economic aid. The Stassen report debunks those claims.

Everything now would seem to point to the dire necessity of a change of policy by the present rulers of the Kremlin. They face an internal as well as an external crisis. They need time for reconstruction — economic, military and political. There is only one way to get it—by conciliatory talk. There is only one place to seek it—in conferences with the heads of the Western governments.

THE SOVIETS will probably make some startling proposals at Geneva—for they need goods, and they will do almost anything to get machinery and materials. It's a time for wariness on the part of the free world. For it will be recalled that Hitler was allowed to import war materials from Allied countries up to almost the beginning of World War 2, just as militaristic Japan bought her materials in America in preparation for her subsequent attack on the United States. Economic policy has become in modern times as significant a part of national defense as military weapons themselves.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Memphis, Tenn., July 5—The terrible violence of the Southern Bell Telephone and Louisville and Nashville Railroad strikes is almost forgotten in the south. Thus, the lesson of this insurrection against established government has been lost. As Mrs. Lucille Miller so beautifully put it in her letter from the government insane asylum in Washington, "Human beings do not recall anguish unless they conjure it up—fortunately for the race."

The people of the southern tier of states always down to now have thought of themselves as quick-tempered, fiery direct actionists who could not be abused. Unfortunately, that is just an old superstitution. Even the Texans, who gloried in a reputation of gun-toting and prompt, personal redress of wrongs, are as docile and helpless as the people of Detroit, New York and Toledo when union goons, whether in small patrols or in insensate mobs, take to the street and highways to beat up individual citizens, dynamite bridges and cut cables.

The south is "going industrial" all the way from Savannah, Charleston and Norfolk to San Diego and Los Angeles.

But at the moment the old so-called deep south is under discussion. This means Virginia, the Carolinas, Mississippi, Georgia, Alabama, Tennessee, Louisiana and Texas. Arkansas is just beginning the switch from agriculture, mainly cotton, to "industry." Florida is unique in that northern people who were called Yankees 25 years ago, swarmed in during booms and countermanded the will of the old natives. Miami and Miami Beach, two of the most important cities, resemble New York in political and social temperament. Miami has had a rough experience with members of the Capone syndicate from Chicago who "organized" the floating waiters, bartenders and all such employes and never were seriously challenged although they were exposed by the name and reputation more than ten years ago. Thirty years ago the Klan would have lynched these carpetbaggers or chased them away.

The south, like the north, is not organized to resist the invasion of the unions. The hot-headed southerner is no better able to fight back than a man of similar spirit in Kohler, Wis., where, of late, the most frightful violence and persecution of non-striking, non-union workers has gone unrebuked by public authority. If the governor of a state, the sheriff of a county or the mayor and council of a city will not protect local citizens from assault, nocturnal outrage against their homes, vandalism against their automobiles and many other vicious practices of unions, the people will be overwhelmed, the employing companies will surrender and the unions will plant their captives in public offices as they have done in Michigan.

The south had her scalawags in reconstruction and another generation of the same sorry breed appeared to profiteer in the misfortune of the region when Roosevelt and his wife began to sneer at the "quality" and organize the "masses" against them. Now the scalawags, traitors to their homeland and their people, welcome the most brutal unioneers in return for money and votes.

In Nashville, Silliman Evans, of the Tennessean, and well-informed members of his staff, a Democratic group in the partisan political sense, recently told me that 100 municipalities in Mississippi have subsidized clothing factories and textile mills. Last winter the fact was published that garment factories below the line were actually paying a royalty to David Dubinsky's union in New York for each non-union worker employed therein, in lieu of dues. Dubinsky could take reprisals in this commerce. This certainly is a restraint of trade in the interests of a union which is, frankly and aggressively, a socialist political party in itself, but the anti-trust laws are not invoked. They may not bear on such practices, but there is no desire by public officials, federal or state, to bring them to bear. Even the FBI seems to have been apathetic about sabotage and vandalism in the Bell and L and N strikes although these crimes certainly came within the bureau's purview.

At the discussion of these Mississippi factories the question naturally occurred whether the local governments would become the actual employers of these local citizens if, in a depression, the northern operators should pull out. This is a very unstable industry with fierce competition and a high proportion of business failures. There are no giants in the women's clothing industry. Assuming that these cities and towns should undertake to run the factories themselves, would that be fascism? It would be something strange to this country but not necessarily fascism,

C. S. Treadwell Will Is Filed

By the will of Cornelius S. Treadwell, admitted to probate in Ulster County Surrogate's Court today, substantial permanent benefits are conferred upon the Young Men's Christian Association of Kingston, Kingston Hospital and St. James Methodist Church of Kingston.

The will is dated August 20, 1953, and is witnessed by Frances M. O'Dea and George F. Kaufman. Ernest LeFever is named as executor and Kingston Trust Company is appointed trustee.

AFTER MAKING certain small bequests, Mr. Treadwell created a trust of 1/3 part of his residuary estate for the life benefit of his wife, Margaret Loughran Treadwell, a trust of 1/3 part thereof for the life benefit of his sister, Margaret DeWitt Treadwell, and a trust of 1/3 part thereof for the life benefit of his sister, Mary Treadwell. As to each such trust he directs that, upon the death of the life beneficiary thereof, the principal of such trust should continue to be held by his trustee in perpetuity and that the net income therefrom should be paid quarter-annually to the Young Men's Christian Association of Kingston, Kingston Hospital and St. James Methodist Church of Kingston in equal parts.

The probate petition filed in the Surrogate's court contains merely a formal statement that the value of the estate exceeds $10,000, but it is believed that the actual amount thereof will be extremely substantial.

Five School Teachers' Dismissal Upheld

Albany, July 6 (AP)—The state education commissioner Monday upheld the dismissal of five New York city school teachers fired for refusing to answer questions concerning possible membership in the Communist party.

Lewis A. Wilson told, however, that education boards did not have the power to question employes regarding knowledge they might have of Communist activity by other persons.

Wilson dismissed an appeal brought by the five teachers, who were fired by the five New York city board of education earlier this year.

They are Benjamin H. Baronofsky, Henry Dapielowitz, Mildred Grossman, Maurice Kurzman and Abraham Squire.

Six Bid Brought Narrow Escape

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

It's rather hard to stay out of six diamonds with today's hand. After West's pre-emptive overcall of two hearts, North can hardly pass with such tremendous diamond strength. (Some experts would pass, however, expecting to get another chance to bid later on.) When North does stretch to three diamonds, South is naturally off to the races.

At any rate, the hand was bid to six diamonds with great speed and decision in a rubber bridge game at New York's famous Mayfair Bridge Club. The play needed more thought than the bidding, but all ended well since declarer was Eli Jaye, well known New York expert.

West opened the ace of hearts, dropping Jaye's king, and then shifted to a trump. It was now up to South to find a way to get rid of the losing spade. After some thought, declarer decided to play East for length and strength in both black suits. This seemed fairly likely, since West's bidding indicated a long heart suit with very little if any side strength.

In effect, therefore, Jaye constructed a mental picture that very closely resembled the actual East-West hands. This was an important first step, but there was still a problem.

Declarer won the second trick with one of dummy's trumps, ruffed a heart, led a trump to dummy, ruffed dummy's last heart, cashed the top clubs, ruffed a club in dummy, and then led both of dummy's remaining trumps. This brought everybody down to three cards.

Unfortunately for East, he held three spades and the queen of clubs, with a discard still to be made. Declarer had three spades and a club behind East. If East discarded a club, Jaye's club would be good. If East, instead, discarded a spade, South would keep the three spades and take the last three tricks with the ace, king, and jack of spades.

Do You Remember

By SOPHIE MILLER

Did a phrase ever bother you, you wondered who said it and perhaps why. During our building boom here I wanted to use the quotation: "Let not him who is houseless pull down the house of another, but let him work diligently and build one for himself, thus by example assuring that his own shall be safe from violence when built." I thought perhaps it originated in the Bible, but I see in the recent July issue of the Reader's Digest, on page 152, Abraham Lincoln said or wrote those words. It started with: "Property is the fruit of labor; property is desirable; it is a positive good in the world." Perhaps others have run across this Lincoln quotation and given some other author credit. No doubt real estate trade journals have used the above at some time or other.

We feel that our boom of building is something new, well lets look back to 1883 when the Kingston Argus of Sept. 12 had the following: "The sister of Mr. Simon S. Westbrook will erect five new houses on Henry street, near Union avenue, (Broadway now) 100 feet front altogether, about 50 feet deep and two stories high. These will be used for tenement purposes." As we all know, they were made of substantial local brick, have been continuously occupied and used since 1883 and no doubt will still be standing there for years to come. I wonder if the same will be said of many of the homes now being put up in various housing projects some 72 years hence.

Another item from the "Kingston Argus" of Sept. 12, 1883 reads: "In about two weeks, five houses, each 20 feet front and 40 feet deep will be erected by Alderman Fredenburgh on Greenkill avenue. Each house will be two stories high and will be used for tenement purposes." No doubt, back in 1883 there was also a crying need for good housing. I have always had great respect for brick and stone construction. Give a house a good cellar, foundation and walls of good beams and brick and from time to time a new roof and you can be nearly sure that three generations will enjoy its comfort. Of course, no doubt time will tell just how the new light weight modern construction homes will stand up under various weather and living conditions. Back some 300 years ago folks brough brick from Holland and there are some still in homes today. You can see them in back part of the Senate House. Fieldstone of the old type stood up centuries also.

I wonder how many folks remember the "Old Lockwood House" corner Wall and Pearl street which was dismantled some time ago for its owner, Mr. Erskine, of Boston Mass. According to Christy Everett of Zena at the time he took it down, he thought it was built about two centuries ago. I saw one old Dutch oven there about 6 feet long. Some of the floor boards were up to 20 inches wide and one and a half inch pine. Doors were made of 26 inch timber, hand planed. A short time ago I tried everywhere to buy a 14 inch wide board, and the widest anyone had was a 12 inch. Of course, I mean one piece boards not modern plywood. So that is what they meant by broad beamed boards in those days. Two rooms in the attic were for slaves, in the Lockwood house. Many rooms had fireplaces made from Holland brick instead of modern fire brick. In those days the Holland brick was needed to stand up against tremendous heat.

On the Trail

American Falls, Idaho (AP)—Don Benson and Boyd White spotted what looked like cougar tracks. The footprints were huge—five inches across. They summoned John Luck, a government trapper, and started tracking the beast. Six miles down the road the trio came upon their quarry—a St. Bernard dog belonging to E. G. Commons.

Earth Composition

Oxygen, mostly in combination with other elements constitutes about half the earth's crust and another quarter of the total is silicon.

AMERICAN MENU

Picnic Dinner In Carport Provides Carload of Fun

YOUNG MARRIED COUPLES in Illinois get their families together for picnics, sheltered from the elements by their carports.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

In Park Forest, Ill., 30 miles from Chicago, young couples like to entertain neighbors at carport picnics over the weekend. Bob and Nancy Mahnke and Jim and Jean Anderson are graduates of Iowa State College. They told us how they do it.

They keep advance preparation for the picnic meal down to little more than shopping for the food. The menu is often cook-it-on-the-spot type. Minute steaks or ground beef are cooked over the charcoal grill and eaten between bakers' buns easily by youngsters and grownups alike.

For an extra touch they marinate the minute steaks in salad oil and dry sherry. There's always a tossed salad and a fruit pie or a cake from one of the excellent food shops in the village. Usually there's a casserole dish, too.

Steaks in a Bun
(Yield: 8 steak sandwiches)

Eight cube steaks, ½ cup salad oil, ¼ cup sherry or sherry flavoring, 1 clove garlic, cut in large pieces, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 8 sliced sandwich buns, 3 tablespoons soft butter or margarine, ¼ teaspoon celery salt.

Place cube steaks in a dish. Combine salad oil, sherry or sherry flavoring, garlic, salt and pepper. Pour oil mixture over steaks and allow to marinate about 1½ hours. Spread butter on cut rolls and sprinkle with celery salt. Drizzle some of the marinade on the buttered rolls. Remove steaks from marinade and grill on an outdoor grill until browned on both sides. Serve between roll halves.

Baked Lima Bean Casserole
(Yield: 8-10 servings)

One cup tomato sauce, 1 cup catsup, ½ cup finely chopped onion, ¼ cup brown sugar, ¼ cup light molasses, 2 tablespoons vinegar, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, 1½ quarts cooked large lima beans, ½ pound diced bacon.

Combine tomato sauce, catsup, onion, brown sugar, molasses, vinegar and dry mustard. Alternate layers of beans, bacon and sauce in a greased (2-quart) casserole. Cover and bake in a slow oven (325 degrees F.) for 2½ hours.

Real Sassafras

Carbondale, Ill. (AP)—Sassafras, used by pioneers as a spring tonic, has been shipped to V. L. Webb of Sacramento, Calif., who requested a batch of the real stuff from genuine Carbondale sassafras trees. He said he had been buying sassafras in California drug stores, but their produse was weak and tasteless. The Chamber of Commerce dispatched the makings promptly.

There are about 54½ million children under 18 in the United States, an increase of 13 million since World War 2.

Bang Gets the Birds

Casper, Wyo. (AP)—Casper residents can't crow about getting ride of their crows. After receiving several complaints that cawing of crows was disturbing early morning sleep, Casper police promised to investigate. They did. They began shooting the birds with shotguns—at 5 a. m.

MOST SENSATIONAL DISCOVERY IN 40 YEARS FOR BETTER BAKING AND FRYING!

FIRST ALL-NEW SHORTENING!

It's RICH! It's YELLOW!

Procter & Gamble's Golden Fluffo

What a pie it makes!

RICHER-LOOKING... BETTER-TASTING... MORE APPETIZING!

Fluffo makes the shortest, flakiest piecrust possible... the most tempting golden-brown pies you can bake!

Why? Because fabulous new Fluffo cuts into flour for tender, golden pastry never possible with a plain white shortening. Makes piecrust so rich and delicate it breaks at the merest touch of your fork!

INDIANA STATE BAKING CHAMPION, Mrs. Thelma Stierer, says:—

"I used to brush on a special glaze to make my piecrust look rich. Now I don't do that. I use Fluffo in my pastry and get the same wonderful color. And Fluffo really does make piecrust rich! Makes it wonderfully short!"

"No white shortening can give me a pie like this!" says this winner of 600 State and County prize ribbons for baking.

Like cooking champions, you'll be excited about golden Fluffo! It gives you flaky, tender, golden-brown piecrust such as you've never been able to make before . . . tastier and richer-looking, by far, than you can get from white shortening!

That's because Fluffo is different! Even its color is different—yellow from pure carotene.

And Fluffo is such fun to work with! Use it in all your recipes that call for shortening—and see what happens! Without changing a single measurement, you'll get the highest, lightest, fluffiest-textured cakes possible. The most appetizing golden-brown fries . . . and so crisp and digestible too!

Yet Fluffo costs no more than leading white shortenings! It's available in most areas. Get a can of Fluffo and use it for richer-looking, better-tasting cooking!

According to Christy Everett of Zena at the time he took it down, he thought it was built about two centuries ago. I saw one old Dutch oven there about 6 feet long. Some of the floor boards were up to 20 inches wide and one and a half inch pine. Doors were made of 26 inch timber, hand planed. A short time ago I tried everywhere to buy a 14 inch wide board, and the widest anyone had was a 12 inch. Of course, I mean one piece boards not modern plywood. So that is what they meant by broad beamed boards in those days. Two rooms in the attic were for slaves, in the Lockwood house. Many rooms had fireplaces made from Holland brick instead of modern fire brick. In those days the Holland brick was needed to stand up against tremendous heat.

On the Trail

American Falls, Idaho (AP)—Don Benson and Boyd White spotted what looked like cougar tracks. The footprints were huge—five inches across. They summoned John Luck, a government trapper, and started tracking the beast. Six miles down the road the trio came upon their quarry—a St. Bernard dog belonging to E. G. Commons.

Oxygen, mostly in combination with other elements constitutes about half the earth's crust and another quarter of the total is silicon.

AMERICAN MENU

Picnic Dinner In Carport Provides Carload of Fun

YOUNG MARRIED COUPLES in Illinois get their families together for picnics, sheltered from the elements by their carports.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

In Park Forest, Ill., 30 miles from Chicago, young couples like to entertain neighbors at carport picnics over the weekend. Bob and Nancy Mahnke and Jim and Jean Anderson are graduates of Iowa State College. They told us how they do it.

They keep advance preparation for the picnic meal down to little more than shopping for the food. The menu is often cook-it-on-the-spot type. Minute steaks or ground beef are cooked over the charcoal grill and eaten between bakers' buns easily by youngsters and grownups alike.

For an extra touch they marinate the minute steaks in salad oil and dry sherry. There's always a tossed salad and a fruit pie or a cake from one of the excellent food shops in the village. Usually there's a casserole dish, too.

Steaks in a Bun
(Yield: 8 steak sandwiches)

Eight cube steaks, ½ cup salad oil, ¼ cup sherry or sherry flavoring, 1 clove garlic, cut in large pieces, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 8 sliced sandwich buns, 3 tablespoons soft butter or margarine, ¼ teaspoon celery salt.

Place cube steaks in a dish. Combine salad oil, sherry or sherry flavoring, garlic, salt and pepper. Pour oil mixture over steaks and allow to marinate about 1½ hours. Spread butter on cut rolls and sprinkle with celery salt. Drizzle some of the marinade on the buttered rolls. Remove steaks from marinade and grill on an outdoor grill until browned on both sides. Serve between roll halves.

Baked Lima Bean Casserole
(Yield: 8-10 servings)

One cup tomato sauce, 1 cup catsup, ½ cup finely chopped onion, ¼ cup brown sugar, ¼ cup light molasses, 2 tablespoons vinegar, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, 1½ quarts cooked large lima beans, ½ pound diced bacon.

Combine tomato sauce, catsup, onion, brown sugar, molasses, vinegar and dry mustard. Alternate layers of beans, bacon and sauce in a greased (2-quart) casserole. Cover and bake in a slow oven (325 degrees F.) for 2½ hours.

Real Sassafras

Carbondale, Ill. (AP)—Sassafras, used by pioneers as a spring tonic, has been shipped to V. L. Webb of Sacramento, Calif., who requested a batch of the real stuff from genuine Carbondale sassafras trees. He said he had been buying sassafras in California drug stores, but their product use was weak and tasteless. The Chamber of Commerce dispatched the makings promptly.

There are about 54½ million children under 18 in the United States, an increase of 13 million since World War 2.

Bang Gets the Birds

Casper, Wyo. (AP)—Casper residents can't crow about getting ride of their crows. After receiving several complaints that cawing of crows was disturbing early morning sleep, Casper police promised to investigate. They did. They began shooting the birds with shotguns—at 5 a. m.

MOST SENSATIONAL DISCOVERY IN 40 YEARS FOR BETTER BAKING AND FRYING!

FIRST ALL-NEW SHORTENING!

It's RICH! It's YELLOW!

Procter & Gamble's Golden Fluffo

What a pie it makes!

RICHER-LOOKING... BETTER-TASTING... MORE APPETIZING!

Fluffo makes the shortest, flakiest piecrust possible... the most tempting golden-brown pies you can bake!

Why? Because fabulous new Fluffo cuts into flour for tender, golden pastry never possible with a plain white shortening. Makes piecrust so rich and delicate it breaks at the merest touch of your fork!

INDIANA STATE BAKING CHAMPION,
Mrs. Thelma Stierer, says:—
"I used to brush on a special glaze to make my piecrust look rich. Now I don't do that. I use Fluffo in my pastry and get the same wonderful color. And Fluffo really does make piecrust rich! Makes it wonderfully short!"

"No white shortening can give me a pie like this!" says this winner of 600 State and County prize ribbons for baking.

Like cooking champions, you'll be excited about golden Fluffo! It gives you flaky, tender, golden-brown piecrust such as you've never been able to make before . . . tastier and richer-looking, by far, than you can get from white shortening!

That's because Fluffo is different! Even its color is different — yellow from pure carotene.

And Fluffo is such fun to work with! Use it in all your recipes that call for shortening — and see what happens! Without changing a single measurement, you'll get the highest, lightest, fluffiest-textured cakes possible. The most appetizing golden-brown fries . . . and so crisp and digestible too!

Yet Fluffo costs no more than leading white shortenings! It's available in most areas. Get a can of Fluffo and use it for richer-looking, better-tasting cooking!

Experts Not Optimistic

Warn Conference Won't Remove Threat of War

By JOHN SCALI
(For J. M. Roberts, AP News Analyst)

Some top rank intelligence experts are aghast at the big rise in optimism in Washington over prospects for some kind of a deal with Russia ending the cold war.

These officials, who have been carefully following Soviet developments for years, believe it is dangerous nonsense to expect the Russians to accept the kind of terms that are necessary to ease East-West tensions.

IN THEIR VIEW, neither the Geneva "Summit" conference this month or later Big Four talks at a lower level will succeed in removing the threat of war from the international horizon.

What particularly baffles these observers is the current outpouring of stories picturing Russia as so weak internally that it has no alternative but to make sweeping concessions to the west in the near future.

THIS THEORY, now being discussed seriously by responsible officials, holds that Russia's agricultural and industrial production has fallen so far behind that the Kremlin wants a two or three year truce in order to catch up with the west.

Intelligence experts believe any such theory is a pipe dream.

Russia's current sweet talk, they believe, represents a new, more imaginative maneuver to block what the Soviets fear most—German rearmament.

THERE IS NO solid evidence whatever, they say, that the Russians are hurting because their industrial machine and farm output has started to collapse.

On the contrary, they feel there is good reason for believing that Russia has successfully expanded production in these fields in the past two years and that output will improve from now on with less money and effort.

For example, Russia's farm crisis may be solved by the end of this year by the apparently successful campaign to put some 72 million new acres under the plow. Russian spokesmen have been ballyhooing this feat during the past year, claiming that two-thirds of the new plantings will produce food during this crop season. These intelligence experts believe Moscow is telling the truth on this point.

FURTHER, Russia obviously has succeeded in turning out new jet fighters, jet bombers and impressive amounts of new ground weapons in recent months. These have been displayed to foreigners in Moscow during recent national celebrations.

Intelligence surveys indicate these are not advance prototypes but actual production models, meaning that factories have already been tooled up to produce them.

With this evidence before them, these intelligence experts are now trying to curb the more enthusiastic and optimistic government officials who believe the Russians in some way may have got religion and will behave like good boys from now on.

That Human Element Needed To Guide Electronic Brains

New York, July 6 (AP)—Those big electronic computers, called the "giant brain," have run into a bottleneck—a shortage of human brains to tell them what to do.

If the truth be known, a giant brain is really quite stupid. It does only what it is told.

A big brain like Sperry Rand Corp.'s Univac or International Business Machine Co.'s Model 702 has the computing ability of 25,000 trained mathematicians. It can remember enough information to fill an 1,825-page Manhattan telephone directory, perform logical operations at the rate of 7,200 a second and double check every one as it goes along. But when a big brain comes to a point in a problem where it hasn't been told previously what to do, it just stops.

People who tell the machine what to do are called programmers. They set up the steps the machine is to follow before it can solve any problem. It may take months to program a problem which the machine with its blinding speed solves within a split-second.

THE GIANT electronic brain, weighing 11½ tons, is helpless without a programmer with a human brain, weighing about three pounds.

There is a shortage of good programmers. There is a shortage, too, of people suitable for training as programmers. Too much isn't known yet about all the qualifications but this much is sure. A PhD degree no longer qualifies a prospect automatically. Too many learned experts with a string of graduate degrees have turned out to be lousy programmers.

"Perhaps the key is logic," said Dr. Herbert F. Mitchell, Jr., director of Sperry Rand's Univac applications. "Good old fashioned horse sense probably is a better term."

Both Sperry Rand and IBM found to their surprise that civilian business applications are harder to set up for the computer than the supposedly much more difficult scientific problems on which they worked for the government during the war.

CORE OF the current difficulty is the difference between the languages used by science and business. The language of science is mathematics — precise, definite, unvarying. One and one makes two. Always! But the language of business is different.

"Scientific applications are logical and simple," said Dr. Mitchell, "whereas commercial applications are subject to the individual interpretations of man."

Dr. George W. Petrie, IBM's director of electronic computer programs and applications research, agreed. "Einstein's theory (equals MC square) is direct and simple," he said. "Follow that logically and you come up with atomic energy."

An IBM computer recently translated a series of sentences from Russian into English. The machine did it within a few seconds after months of programming by experts at Georgetown University.

In theory, it is entirely possible to drop a Russian book in at one end of a big brain and get an English book out at the other end. But that day is far off. It would take too much time, effort and money in programming to make it worthwhile.

LANGUAGE is difficult because it is not precise. The word "fast" can mean fleet of foot or the direct opposite as in "tied fast." or quite a different meaning as in a character reference.

Then there is the idiom. Idioms are pure torture to programmers because they are not logical. Take a word like "charleyhorse." Charley is a nickname for Charles. A horse is a type of animal but a Charleyhorse does not mean a horse named Charley. It is a muscular contraction which may take place in the calf and can make you yell like crazy. And calf in this case does not mean a baby cow.

Finally, if this story were programmed and given to a big brain as a problem it would have read it in a little less than five thousandths of a second—.00458 of a second to be precise.

How long did it take you?

Never mind, it took longer than that for this three pound brain to write it. And a big brain never could.

Pursuit... by Telephone

He was the doctor in a military school. He might have to operate on one of the students within a few hours. But he hadn't been able to reach the parents to get their permission. All he could learn from the boy was that the parents were on an automobile trip. He called friends and relatives to find out where the boy's parents might have gone. No luck. The family's minister thought they had mentioned Cape Cod. The doctor then appealed to our operator for help.

She called hotels in the Cape Cod area . . . and finally found one that the boy's folks had just left. She got a description of their car and the direction it was headed. Within an hour the car was spotted along the route and the doctor's call completed.

Emergencies of this sort don't happen very often. But when they do, you can count on telephone people to find time for the important "extras" that make your telephone service so personal, so friendly, and so dependable 24 hours every day. New York Telephone Company.

This 4-Door Beauty is the Newest Hit in Hardtops

You certainly ought to come see why this new kind of hardtop is headed for the best-seller list.

Which means the low and rakish look of a Convertible—a solid steel roof overhead—and no center posts in the side window areas to obstruct your view.

But that's only the beginning.

Here you get two extra doors. They open to the rear compartment. So no one in the front has to move when someone gets into or out of the rear.

Here you get massive half-pillars on either side on which the front doors latch and the rear doors hinge. (That's why you see no center posts above the door line.)

Here, too, you get wholly new structural principles in body design and strength that give this beauty the extra safety of rock-firm solidity at the top, sides and bottom.

And here—bless those Buick engineers!—you get a lot more room in the rear compartment. For the 4-Door Riviera gives you over 9 inches more hiproom and 5 inches more legroom—yet with no increase in wheelbase or over-all car length.

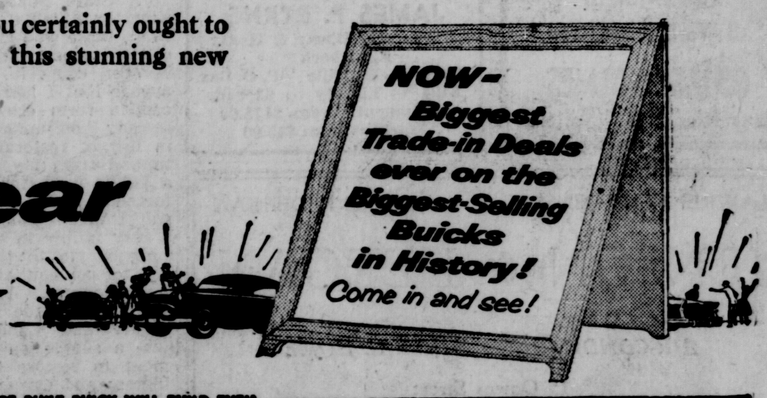

So we repeat—you certainly ought to come in and see this stunning new kind of hardtop.

It's the last word in beauty, comfort, convenience. It's available in Buick's two lowest-priced Series—the SPECIAL and the CENTURY. And it's all Buick—power, ride, handling—and the spectacular performance of Buick's Variable Pitch Dynaflow.*

188-hp Buick SPECIAL 6-Passenger, 4-Door RIVIERA, Model 43

This 4-Door Beauty is the Newest Hit in Hardtops

YOU certainly ought to come see why this new kind of hardtop is headed for the best-seller list.

It's a Buick Riviera, of course.

Which means the low and rakish look of a Convertible—a solid steel roof overhead—and no center posts in the side window areas to obstruct your view.

But that's only the beginning.

Here you get two extra doors. They open to the rear compartment. So no one in the front has to move when someone gets into or out of the rear.

Here you get massive half-pillars on either side on which the front doors latch and the rear doors hinge. (That's why you see no center posts above the door line.)

Here, too, you get wholly new structural principles in body design and strength that give this beauty the extra safety of rock-firm solidity at the top, sides and bottom.

And here—bless those Buick engineers!—you get a lot more room in the rear compartment. For the 4-Door Riviera gives you over 9 inches more hiproom and 5 inches more legroom—yet with no increase in wheelbase or over-all car length.

So we repeat—you certainly ought to come in and see this stunning new kind of hardtop.

It's the last word in beauty, comfort, convenience. It's available in Buick's two lowest-priced Series—the SPECIAL and the CENTURY. And it's all Buick—power, ride, handling—and the spectacular performance of Buick's Variable Pitch Dynaflow.*

Drop in today—tomorrow at the latest—and learn what Buick's all-time record sales year can mean to you in the way of a whopping-big trade-in deal.

Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on ROADMASTER, optional at modest extra cost on other Series.*

Thrill of the year is Buick

Hotel to Have Union Election

Poll for 550 Concord Workers Set July 20

Approximately 550 employes of the Concord Hotel, Kiamesha Lake, near Monticello, will hold an election July 20 to determine whether or not they will join Local 666, Hotel and Restaurant Employes, it was announced today by Business Agent George E. Yerry, Jr.

An agreement to hold the election at that time was reached in a hearing yesterday before State Labor Board Examiner Ernest Doerfler at the Concord Hotel. Voting will take place between 9 a. m. and 4:30 p. m.

LOCAL 666 covers hotel and restaurant employes in Ulster and Sullivan counties.

The hearing yesterday was the second held before a state examiner in the matter of the Concord Hotel. The first was held two weeks ago.

Mr. Yerry said the election at the Concord Hotel would have vital implications for other hotel and restaurant establishments in the two counties. There are approximately 5,000 employes of 600 hotels in Sullivan county alone, he pointed out. One of the largest of these is Grossinger's with approximately 600 employes.

REPRESENTING the Concord Hotel at the hearing yesterday were M. Oppenheim of Monticello, Paul Waldman of the firm of Waldman and Waldman, New York, and Martin Markson, also of New York. Dan O'Connell of the firm of Breed, Abbott and Morgan, New York, appeared in behalf of Local 666.

The Governor Clinton Hotel is among Ulster county hotels whose employes negotiate through Local 666. The Governor Clinton has been represented by the local for several years.

Peter Starr, a bartender at the Governor Clinton, is president of Local 666.

Woman Protests In Ski Road Case

A single picket was pacing the sidewalk in front of the Ulster county clerk's office today bearing a "sandwich" sign in protest over the New York Central's action in closing off entrance to property at Phoenicia.

Mrs. Helen Ring, wife of Harold Ring, well-known ski advocate who owns a tract of 72 acres of land at Phoenicia, told a Freeman reporter she was picketing the county clerk's office "because lawyers come here" and she was protesting the action of an attorney who had represented her in an attempt to get the New York Central Railroad to grant "ingress and egress" over its property to a 17-acre parking area which was adjacent to their ski center.

Mrs. Ring states she was exercising her right as an American taxpayer to protest over action taken by the courts as a result of the manner in which counsel had handled the action.

In a letter written to William H. White, president of the New York Central Railroad, Ring, who operated the Central Ski Shop at 300 East 44th street, alleges he has been financially ruined because of the action of the railroad and writes:

"My years of effort through a legal action brought in New York State Supreme Court at Kingston culminated last June in what, those who know my story, call a travesty on justice, when in open court it was made to appear that I had agreed to accept a farm crossing which I already had under the statute, in lieu of restoration of access to and from my property over a public road, for which I was forced to bring suit and in the suit I was seeking damages.

"My failure in a court of law brought me to the decision to try for an equitable settlement by conference. The resulting offer finally made by your Real Estate and Land Department was a suggestion for an agreement to restore the sought-for ingress and egress without consideration for the five-year persecution and with a clause 'to be canceled on short notice,' which could result in a trap for me to be sprung at any moment thought advantageous to the the party or parties who prevailed upon you to close me off in the first instance."

AUBREY L. BERRY, son of Florence A. Berry and the late George L. Berry of West Hurley, has resigned his position as teller at the Kingston Trust Company in order to devote his full time to general insurance, it was announced today.

During his service with the bank for the past nine years Mr. Berry has conducted a general insurance business on the side. He will maintain an office at his home in West Hurley.

Prior to his connection with the Kingston Trust Company Mr. Berry was employed by the National Ulster County Bank for nearly three years. He spent 37 months in the Army Air Corps and was discharged in the grade of staff sergeant.

Carpenters Bring Action

An action by the Hudson Valley District Council of Carpenters against the Columbia County Board of Supervisors was initiated Tuesday in Hudson at a hearing before the State Department of Labor. The district council has charged that the board of supervisors is violating the prevailing wage law in building a bridge on West Taconic with employes of their maintenance department. Business Agent George E. Yerry said today the action was similar to one brought recently against the Kingston Board of Education in the matter of work being done by board maintenance staff on School 8.

Seizure Is . . .

the demands until it gets a fair increase and some tax relief.

Missing from yesterday's meeting with the commissioners was Louis E. Wolfson, chairman of the Capital Transit board.

SENATE subpoenas have been issued ordering the financier to be present tomorrow at a Senate district subcommittee hearing on the transit situation. Cecil Wolfson, a transit company director, said he didn't know where his brother was.

Louis Wolfson has been on the west coast and one subpoena was issued for service in Los Angeles. Others were issued for service in Washington, Miami Beach and Jacksonville, Fla.

THE MEN demand raises of 25 cents for trolley and bus operators who made $1.90 an hour and 31 cents for mechanics who made $2.09, plus fringe benefits. No specific offer from the company has been reported but persons close to the negotiations say transit officials have talked of earmarking for raises at least part of any funds realized out of tax relief and school fare increases which the company is asking.

Cook May . . .

cratic county convention will be held at the court house on Wednesday, July 20, at 8 p. m. to be followed immediately by the city convention. Who the Democratic party may designate to head the city ticket appears to be still a problem. Recently Ex-mayor William F. Edelmuth was presented at a public gathering as "our next mayor" but others in the party are reported to have other views on the subject.

Francis J. O'Neil, former thirteenth ward supervisor, and later city chairman, recently submitted his resignation as city chairman and has been succeeded by William Mahoney as city chairman.

Hotel to Have Union Election

Poll for 550 Concord Workers Set July 20

Approximately 550 employes of the Concord Hotel, Kiamesha Lake, near Monticello, will hold an election July 20 to determine whether or not they will join Local 666, Hotel and Restaurant Employes, it was announced today by Business Agent George E. Yerry, Jr.

An agreement to hold the election at that time was reached in a hearing yesterday before State Labor Board Examiner Ernest Doerfler at the Concord Hotel. Voting will take place between 9 a. m. and 4:30 p. m.

LOCAL 666 covers hotel and restaurant employes in Ulster and Sullivan counties.

The hearing yesterday was the second held before a state examiner in the matter of the Concord Hotel. The first was held two weeks ago.

Mr. Yerry said the election at the Concord Hotel would have vital implications for other hotel and restaurant establishments in the two counties. There are approximately 5,000 employes of 600 hotels in Sullivan county alone, he pointed out. One of the largest of these is Grossinger's with approximately 600 employes.

REPRESENTING the Concord Hotel at the hearing yesterday were M. Oppenheim of Monticello, Paul Waldman of the firm of Waldman and Waldman, New York, and Martin Markson, also of New York. Dan O'Connell of the firm of Breed, Abbott and Morgan, New York, appeared in behalf of Local 666.

The Governor Clinton Hotel is among Ulster county hotels whose employes negotiate through Local 666. The Governor Clinton has been represented by the local for several years.

Peter Starr, a bartender at the Governor Clinton, is president of Local 666.

Woman Protests In Ski Road Case

A single picket was pacing the sidewalk in front of the Ulster county clerk's office today bearing a "sandwich" sign in protest over the New York Central's action in closing off entrance to property at Phoenicia.

Mrs. Helen Ring, wife of Harold Ring, well-known ski advocate who owns a tract of 72 acres of land at Phoenicia, told a Freeman reporter she was picketing the county clerk's office "because lawyers come here" and she was protesting the action of an attorney who had represented her in an attempt to get the New York Central Railroad to grant "ingress and egress" over its property to a 17-acre parking area which was adjacent to their ski center.

Mrs. Ring states she was exercising her right as an American taxpayer to protest over action taken by the courts as a result of the manner in which counsel had handled the action.

In a letter written to William H. White, president of the New York Central Railroad, Ring, who operated the Central Ski Shop at 300 East 44th street, alleges he has been financially ruined because of the action of the railroad and writes:

"My years of effort through a legal action brought in New York State Supreme Court at Kingston culminated last June in what, those who know my story, call a travesty on justice, when in open court it was made to appear that I had agreed to accept a farm crossing which I already had under the statute, in lieu of restoration of access to and from my property over a public road, for which I was forced to bring suit and in the suit I was seeking damages.

"My failure in a court of law brought me to the decision to try for an equitable settlement by conference. The resulting offer finally made by your Real Estate and Land Department was a suggestion for an agreement to restore the sought-for ingress and egress without consideration for the five-year persecution and with a clause 'to be canceled on short notice,' which could result in a trap for me to be sprung at any moment thought advantageous to the the party or parties who prevailed upon you to close me off in the first instance."

AUBREY L. BERRY, son of Florence A. Berry and the late George L. Berry of West Hurley, has resigned his position as teller at the Kingston Trust Company in order to devote his full time to general insurance, it was announced today.

Prior to his connection with the Kingston Trust Company Mr. Berry was employed by the National Ulster County Bank for nearly three years. He spent 37 months in the Army Air Corps and was discharged in the grade of staff sergeant.

Carpenters Bring Action

An action by the Hudson Valley District Council of Carpenters against the Columbia County Board of Supervisors was initiated Tuesday in Hudson at a hearing before the State Department of Labor. The district council has charged that the board of supervisors is violating the prevailing wage law in building a bridge on West Taconic with employes of their maintenance department. Business Agent George E. Yerry said today the action was similar to one brought recently against the Kingston Board of Education in the matter of work being done by board maintenance staff on School 8.

Seizure Is . . .

the demands until it gets a fair increase and some tax relief.

Missing from yesterday's meeting with the commissioners was Louis E. Wolfson, chairman of the Capital Transit board.

SENATE subpoenas have been issued ordering the financier to be present tomorrow at a Senate district subcommittee hearing on the transit situation. Cecil Wolfson, a transit company director, said he didn't know where his brother was.

Louis Wolfson has been on the west coast and one subpoena was issued for service in Los Angeles. Others were issued for service in Washington, Miami Beach and Jacksonville, Fla.

THE MEN demand raises of 25 cents for trolley and bus operators who made $1.90 an hour and 31 cents for mechanics who made $2.09, plus fringe benefits. No specific offer from the company has been reported but persons close to the negotiations say transit officials have talked of earmarking for raises at least part of any funds realized out of tax relief and school fare increases which the company is asking.

Cook May . . .

cratic county convention will be held at the court house on Wednesday, July 20, at 8 p. m. to be followed immediately by the city convention. Who the Democratic party may designate to head the city ticket appears to be still a problem. Recently Ex-mayor William F. Edelmuth was presented at a public gathering as "our next mayor" but others in the party are reported to have other views on the subject.

Francis J. O'Neil, former thirteenth ward supervisor, and later city chairman, recently submitted his resignation as city chairman and has been succeeded by William Mahoney as city chairman.

About the Folks

Mrs. Bertha Peckerman of 68 Plymouth avenue has left St. Peter's Hospital, Albany, after 14 weeks. She will remain at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Englander, 6 Fairlawn avenue, Albany, for a time before returning to her home in Kingston.

Woman Is Held In Shooting Case

Martha Struber, 32, of 160 Murray street, was held in the Ulster county jail today on a second degree assault charge, in lieu of $500 bail, for shooting her husband, LeRoy, in both feet with a shotgun at their home Tuesday night.

Mrs. Struber will be arraigned tomorrow morning.

IN CITY COURT this morning, bail was set by City Judge Raymond J. Mino, and arraignment was postponed to let Mrs. Struber seek counsel.

Police reported several calls received at 10:02 p. m., Tuesday, that a gun was being discharged at 160 Murray street. Officers Gilbert Gray and Joseph Kivlan, who were sent to investigate, arrested Mrs. Struber on the second degree assault charge for shooting her husband in both feet with a shot gun.

Mr. Struber was removed to Kingston Hospital for treatment by Dr. Samuel Maroon, police said. The hospital reported today his condition is "apparently good."

POLICE SAID that the Strubers' five-months old baby was turned over to the care of Mr. Struber's mother.

Attorney Thomas Saccoman appeared for the district attorney's office.

New Secretary Starts Work With Boys' Division

FRANK REBELLO

Frank Rebello, the new YMCA boys and youth secretary started his new duties on Tuesday morning, supervising and instructing in boys' activities, especially swimming.

Mr. Rebello comes to Kingston with the highest of recommendations in all boys' activities. He is a graduate of Kings' College, Delaware with a bachelor of science degree in physical education. He is a graduate of the American Red Cross and YMCA aquatic schools which makes him well qualified to teach swimming in the boys and girl YMCA program.

Frank Rebello has been employed for the Savage Boys Club in St. Paul, Minnesota, as well as the Astor Home for Boys on the Hudson river. He is taking the place of William Randall, who recently resigned to take over other duties in the mid-west.

Lou Schafer, the YMCA general secretary, who is now directing the Day Camp states that all boys and even the girls should want to meet Mr. Rebello, for he is exactly the kind of young men that all boys and girls should like. He is full of fun. He has a special program for all boys between the ages of 8 to 16 years of age.

Boys can meet Mr. Rebello every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. He can meet the girls every Wednesday and Friday morning. Parents can phone the YMCA and Mr. Robello will gladly give information concerning the YMCA summer program.

Has Week to Decide

New York, July 6 (AP)—Mrs. Catherine E. Kreitzer has a week to decide whether to take the $32,000 she has already won on a television quiz show or risk losing it in a try for $64,000. The 54-year-old grandmother from Camp Hill, Pa., survived the next-to-last hurdle in the CBS TV program "The $64,000 Question" when she gave correct answers to a three-part Bible question last night. A devout Bible reader all her life, Mrs. Kreitzer had chosen to be quizzed on the Bible when she started on the program two weeks ago. That night she reached the $8,000 mark and last week came back to win $16,000.

Talks Are Resumed

Gaza, Egyptian-held Palestine, July 6 (AP)—Egyptian and Israeli representatives resumed talks under UN auspices today in an effort to ease tension in the Gaza strip. The talks were deadlocked last week when both sides failed to reach agreement on a workable agenda.

COMELY KEIKO — Keiko Takahashi will represent Japan at the 1956 Miss Universe contest in Long Beach, Calif. The 20-year-old Oriental beauty won out over 10 other finalists in the Tokyo contest. She is 5 feet, 6 inches tall, weighs 120 pounds and measures 34-25-35.

as if that quibble were important.

There are many details, already present and unforeseen, in this conversion of the south from agriculture to "industry" such as manufacturing and "processing." Agriculture will never be abandoned, but the "family" farm is yielding to the temptation of cash wages. The mass production of food by corporate farms with offices in big cities and the mass distribution of this lavish abundance through supermarkets have been influential in the change.

J. T. Metcalf, attorney for the L and N, said that the railroad could have continued to move freight which "industry" required to live on, but for the "breakdown in law enforcement."

"Local authorities," he wrote, "with some exceptions, are refusing to take any action to protect our property and those who are seeking to work. We were unable to operate through Evansville, Ind., because of mass picketing, threats and beatings of our crews."

The issue in this violent insurrection was a demand for compulsory "welfare" to be paid for by both the company and the workers. Non-union workers wanted to buy their own insurance or none, just as they pleased, individually. They lost.

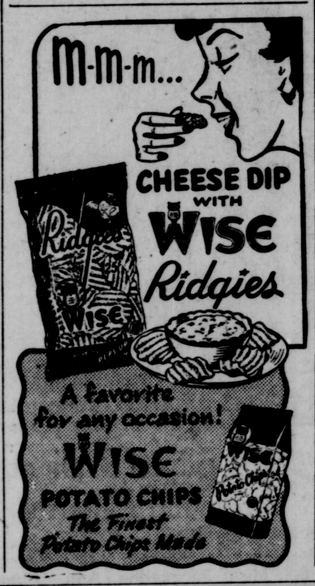

On the Bell strike, the Atlanta Journal, a dogged partisan of the political party which inflicted this condition on the south, said the issue now was: "Shall we live in the midst of lawlessness? These crimes are carefully planned by professional criminals. Now comes the CIO with a loan of $1,250,000 to the CIO-Communication Workers. Bridges can be rebuilt, cables repaired but the shadow the criminals have cast over the union cannot be erased until the union comes fully into the clear, repudiates the crimes and sincerely attempts to catch these men who are damaging the cause of labor."

The Journal is being absurdly naive. Unions never do this. The south will take its punishment until the AFL-CIO terror has swept the whole region into the same predatory job-monopoly with a power to tax both industry and workers.

Good Taste Today

BREAKING OFF AN OLD FRIENDSHIP

"Will you please tell me how I can break off a friendship with a young woman with whom I would rather not be friends any longer? I have known the person in question quite a few years—in fact we went to school together and have been quite friendly, but she has of late acquired a very bad reputation, and I feel that continued friendship with this girl will tend to give me a bad reputation, too. I would be very grateful if you could tell me how to end this friendship without hurting her too much?"

You might take up some new interest or study and work so hard at it that you rarely can find time to do things with her.

Invitations Should Be Answered Promptly

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me if it is proper to put a reply date under the R.s.v.p. on an invitation: For example: R.s.v.p. before . . . I have to let the caterers know by a certain date how many guests to prepare for and if I don't do this I'm afraid many of the guests will not answer in time.

Answer: To put a date under the R.s.v.p. would be in very bad taste. The best thing for you to do is to send your invitations out early enough so that all can answer in time, and the few who don't you can telephone.

Letter in Pencil

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me if it is considered rude to write a letter to someone in pencil? A friend and I were discussing this the other day and as neither one of us could agree on the right answer we are writing to ask you to settle it.

Answer: A pencil written letter is excusable only if you have no pen, and you should explain this in your letter.

Good Taste Today

By EMILY POST

(Author of Etiquette, Children Are People, etc.)

BREAKING OFF AN OLD FRIENDSHIP

"Will you please tell me how I can break off a friendship with a young woman with whom I would rather not be friends any longer? I have known the person in question quite a few years—in fact we went to school together and have been quite friendly, but she has of late acquired a very bad reputation, and I feel that continued friendship with this girl will tend to give me a bad reputation, too. I would be very grateful if you could tell me how to end this friendship without hurting her too much?"

You might take up some new interest or study and work so hard at it that you rarely can find time to do things with her.

Invitations Should Be Answered Promptly

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me if it is proper to put a reply date under the R.s.v.p. on an invitation: For example: R.s.v.p. before . . . I have to let the caterers know by a certain date how many guests to prepare for and if I don't do this I'm afraid many of the guests will not answer in time.

Answer: To put a date under the R.s.v.p. would be in very bad taste. The best thing for you to do is to send your invitations out early enough so that all can answer in time, and the few who don't you can telephone.

Letter in Pencil

Dear Mrs. Post: Will you please tell me if it is considered rude to write a letter to someone in pencil? A friend and I were discussing this the other day and as neither one of us could agree on the right answer we are writing to ask you to settle it.

Answer: A pencil written letter is excusable only if you have no pen, and you should explain this in your letter.

During the recent regular meeting of the board of directors of American Cancer Society, Ulster unit, at the Kirkland Hotel Tuesday, June 28, directors were present from New Paltz, Modena, Tillson, Rosendale, Saugerties and Kingston. President Dr. William S. Bush presided. The board of directors discussed various problems and received the reports from the chairman of the Cancer Campaign, 1955; the director of volunteer services of Ulster county and chairman of standing committees.

Highlight of the meeting was the presence of the executive director of the New York State Division of the American Cancer Society, Alan Stevenson, who answered questions concerning the activities of the Ulster county unit and solved several intricate problems arising in connection with cancer work. Mr. Stevenson presented the new operating rules and regulations for county units 1955 which will replace by-laws originally issued in 1948 under which Ulster county unit has heretofore been operating. Washington, July 6 (AP)—Sen. Clements of Kentucky took over as acting Senate Democratic leader yesterday with expressed determination to carry on the program of Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas.

160 Youngsters Register for 2nd Week of Y Camp

The second week of the YMCA Day Camp at DeWitt Lake started this week with over 160 boys and girls registered according to Lou Schafer, camp director.

All boys and girls from the youngest at five years of age to the oldest at 13 years of age submitted to the entire program. All youngsters that did not know how to swim have a fine start as there were two instruction periods every day during the initial week. These learn-to-swim instructions will be doubled this week because of the addition of the Y physical director, William Irland, who will be Mr. Schafer's assistant throughout the remainder of the camping season. Also, because of the enlarged camp this week and during future weeks, Sec. Schafer has added two more senior counsellors, making nineteen in all giving supervision and life guarding at the beach for the remainder of the camp.

Many campers will start their National Swimming tests this week and some of the best of the beginners will be given their first test of 75 feet, which is required before the camp director qualifies them as being able to swim. All beginners must also do nine things combined with the 75 foot swim and they will then become Minnows. Many other campers that have been to camp for two, three or more years are now ready for the fish and flying fish tests, both of which require ten different swimming skills, and the completion of 100 and 220 yard swims respectfully.

The craft program and noonday rest program of stories have made a wonderful start.

A few campers always drop out after the first week but there are many more to offset them. New campers this week are: Karen and Christine Locke, Tibor Tomshaw Jr., Enid Sippen, Carol Ann Shivone, Joel Richardson John and Sandra DeGasperis, Michael O'Brien, Gary Van Etten, John W. Wood, Donald Reed, Sharon Carney, Dale Malcolm, Ronald Curran Norman Blinder, Manes Schnazer, Ralph Kulsery, Wesley Hyatt, Katherine Brinnier, Sharon Sharpe, Maja Henck, Patricia Larkin, Harold Reuben and Frank and Donald Gille.

Outdoor Meeting Set for Scouters

Saugerties, July 6—The Saugerties District, Boy Scouts of America will conduct the regular district meeting Thursday, 7 p. m. (note change of time) at an outdoor meeting planned for Seamon Park on Malden avenue (Route 9W).

This will be the second attempt to conduct the district meeting in Seamon Park. At the time of the June meeting, the meeting place was changed to Atonement Lutheran Church due to the threatening weather.

District Chairman John J. Wood, Sr., will preside. The agenda will include details of the 1955 Finance Campaign and reports on the progress of the Cub Scout Coaster Derby.

The Scouter Roundtable will be conducted by District Commissioner Eugene H. Davis and the Cubbers Roundtable will be headed by William Ormandy, cubmaster of Pack 130, VFW.

Rev. Messersmith Installed Sunday

Saugerties, July 6—The Rev. Alvin F. Messersmith was installed as pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church of West Camp at installation services held in the church Sunday evening.

The order of installation was conducted by the Rev. Walter E. Bock, president of the Eastern Conference of the New York and New England Lutheran Synod and pastor of Zion Lutheran Church of Cobleskill. The Rev. Luther Straley, pastor of Zion Lutheran Church of Athens served as liturgist.

The musical portion of the program featured a vocal solo by Nelson G. Burhans who rendered, His Almighty Hand. The choir anthem, Seek Ye the Lord, was presented by the Re-union Choir recently organized by Mrs. Roy J. Potts, organist and choir director.

The Rev. Mr. Messersmith, a graduate of Wagner College and Gettysburg Seminary was ordained in his home church, Christ Lutheran Church, Buffalo, in 1946 following which he accepted a call to serve St. John's Lutheran Church of Manorton. In 1951 he began a pastorate at Peace Lutheran Church, Rochester, and returned to the Hudson Valley to serve at St. Paul's on June 15.

Following the services nearly all of the more than 200 people including friends, visiting clergy and members of the congregation participated in a reception given the newly installed pastor and his wife in the parish hall. A surprise feature of the reception was a pantry shower conducted by the ladies of the church.

Lutheran Couples Schedules Meeting

The meeting will be brief and the business will include final arrangements for conducting the outdoor concessions at the West Camp Church Fair scheduled for July 21-22.

Members are asked to bring bathing suits as a swim party is planned at Trnka's following the meeting.

W. Saugerties Fair Set July 6-9 Dates

The annual bazaar and fair sponsored by the West Saugerties Odd Fellows is scheduled to be held at the Odd Fellows Hall in West Saugerties on July 6 to 9.

160 Youngsters Register for 2nd Week of Y Camp

The second week of the YMCA Day Camp at DeWitt Lake started this week with over 160 boys and girls registered according to Lou Schafer, camp director.

All boys and girls from the youngest at five years of age to the oldest at 13 years of age submitted to the entire program. All youngsters that did not know how to swim have a fine start as there were two instruction periods every day during the initial week. These learn-to-swim instructions will be doubled this week because of the addition of the Y physical director, William Irland, who will be Mr. Schafer's assistant throughout the remainder of the camping season. Also, because of the enlarged camp this week and during future weeks, Sec. Schafer has added two more senior counsellors, making nineteen in all giving supervision and life guarding at the beach for the remainder of the camp.

Many campers will start their National Swimming tests this week and some of the best of the beginners will be given their first test of 75 feet, which is required before the camp director qualifies them as being able to swim. All beginners must also do nine things combined with the 75 foot swim and they will then become Minnows. Many other campers that have been to camp for two, three or more years are now ready for the fish and flying fish tests, both of which require ten different swimming skills, and the completion of 100 and 220 yard swims respectfully.

The craft program and noonday rest program of stories have made a wonderful start.

A few campers always drop out after the first week but there are many more to offset them. New campers this week are: Karen and Christine Locke, Tibor Tomshaw Jr., Enid Sippen, Carol Ann Shivone, Joel Richardson John and Sandra DeGasperis, Michael O'Brien, Gary Van Etten, John W. Wood, Donald Reed, Sharon Carney, Dale Malcolm, Ronald Curran Norman Blinder, Manes Schnazer, Ralph Kulsery, Wesley Hyatt, Katherine Brinnier, Sharon Sharpe, Maja Henck, Patricia Larkin, Harold Reuben and Frank and Donald Gille.

CIO Treasurer Says Donations Personal

Detroit, July 6 (AP) — Emil Mazey, secretary-treasurer of the CIO United Auto Workers, denies union dues were used to support federal candidates in the 1954 election.

"Not one penny of dues money was used to support a federal candidate," Mazey said yesterday after being subpoenaed to testify before a federal grand jury investigating the UAW's role in last year's political campaign.

"UAW members gave Senator McNamara (D.-Mich.) $5,000 toward his campaign," Mazey said. but he added that "every cent was donated voluntarily by union members."

McNamara unseated incumbent Rebublican Homer Ferguson in the contest.

The grand jury seeks to determine whether union used its general funds, made up of members' dues money, to finance political activities in violation of federal law.

CIO Treasurer Says Donations Personal

Detroit, July 6 (AP) — Emil Mazey, secretary-treasurer of the CIO United Auto Workers, denies union dues were used to support federal candidates in the 1954 election.

"Not one penny of dues money was used to support a federal candidate," Mazey said yesterday after being subpoenaed to testify before a federal grand jury investigating the UAW's role in last year's political campaign.

"UAW members gave Senator McNamara (D.-Mich.) $5,000 toward his campaign," Mazey said. but he added that "every cent was donated voluntarily by union members."

McNamara unseated incumbent Rebublican Homer Ferguson in the contest.

The grand jury seeks to determine whether union used its general funds, made up of members' dues money, to finance political activities in violation of federal law.

Bob Shelightner Signs Contract With New York Giant Farm

Port Ewen Youth Goes to St. Cloud, Minn. Next Spring

Terms Undisclosed; Batted .400 for KHS

Big Bob Shelightner, a .400-plus hitter with Kingston High this season, has been signed to a New York Giant contract, he revealed today.

Shelightner is scheduled to report to the St. Cloud, Minn., roster in the Northern League at the Giants' minor league training camp in Florida next spring.

It is not known whether a bonus was involved in the transaction.

THE BIG CATCHER was scouted by several major league teams, including the Giants, Tigers and Yankees before he was signed by Chick Genovese of the Giant scouting staff.

The signing took place at the Giants' tryout camp in Lodi, N. J., where Shelightner worked out with several hundred other candidates. Previously he had been followed for several games by a Detroit Tiger coach.

Big Bob caught four years of varsity ball for Kingston High and was a steady .300 hitter. This year he blossomed into the .400 ranks and demonstrated he could hit the long ball.

A SURE-HANDED receiver with a good throwing arm, he has the size and style that easily attracted major league scouts.

Shelightner said he had no plans for the present except to "keep playing and stay in shape." He is a member of the Jones Dairy squad in the City Baseball League and the Kingston Colonials in the New York-New Jersey Semi-Pro League.

Shelightner's battery mate—Bob Maines—is reported dickering with the Giants and was to appear in the Giant tryout camp scheduled today and tomorrow at Hudson.

Tebbetts, Walker Agree It Was All Just a Mistake

Cincinnati, July 6 (AP)—Birdie Tebbetts, the philosophizing manager of the Cincinnati Redlegs, said today his fight last night with hesitatin' Harry Walker of the St. Louis Cardinals proved his fisticuffs and wrestling were rusty.

Tebbetts and the Cardinal manager traded lefts and rights in the ninth inning of the ball game. They wrestled to the ground and rolled over and over.

"I GOT STEPPED on pretty often," Tebbetts grinned. "There must have been 50 guys on the field and they all must have stepped on me. It was one time I wished I was on the bottom of the pile."

Walker, who is getting a reputation as a staller around the circuit, also was good natured about the bout.

"It was just one of those things when we were all teed up trying to win," Walker said. "I'm not mad at Tebbetts and I know he's not sore at me."

Tebbetts, a philosophy major at college, agreed.

Nadlers Forfeit To Doblers

The rainfall and other circumstances combined to stop City League action after a half inning of play yesterday.

Nadlers had already forfeited to Doblers when the rains came when they showed up with only eight players.

An exhibition game was set up but rain quickly washed it out.

The "victory" gave Doblers a 2-1 record for the season and was Nadlers' third straight setback.

THE BIGGEST game of the early season is scheduled this evening at 6:15 between the undefeated New York Panthers (3-0) and Jones Dairy (2-0).

Bruce Bechtold and Bob Maines are the probable starters.

Saddler Ready For Tokyo Bout

Tokyo, July 6 (AP) — World featherweight champ Sandy Saddler raced through a fast workout today and announced he was ready for anything Orient titlist Shigeji Kaneko might throw his way.

"I'm in shape," Saddler told newsmen. "I'll be in there trying."

The two meet in a 10-round non-title go Friday night. Kaneko, Japan's knockout king with a style modeled after Rocky Marciano, has promised to wade in from the opening bell.

"I hear he is a good puncher," Saddler said. "I don't have any special plan for the fight. If he gets hit—that's just one of those things."

Saddler went two rounds with Jiro Sawada, Japan's No. 2 featherweight, hit the heavy bag for two, shadow boxed and exercised.

Jim Massuccio Checks Bagmen With Two Hits

Wimpys Win Over Gene's Bar, 8-2

Joe Massuccio stopped Kaplan Bag with two hits as Rapp's Express rolled to their seventh straight City Softball League victory, by a 3-1 score yesterday.

Massuccio permitted singles in the fourth and fifth innings. Bruce Hinkley cracked a pair of doubles in four trips to maintain his 500-plus batting average.

THE EXPRESS pitcher also aided his own cause with a pair of singletons. The two Kaplan safeties went to Dick Bezemer and Tom Morrissey.

Don Wolff pitched three hit ball as Wimpy's Grill overpowered Gene's Bar & Grill, 8-2, with a couple of three-run innings off Don Dyson. The losers scored their two runs in the fifth.

George Holstein clipped a single and triple and Jim Woods had a pair of solo shots for Wimpy's. Don Freer, Gene Nagele and Don Nagele collected the Gene hits.

AL HUNT pitched Subway Grill to a 9-4 victory over Chernys, yielding seven hits while the Grills were collecting 10 off Ed Cherny.

Frank Fede cracked a single and triple and Les Barringer had two singles for Subways. Kelder doubled and singled for Cherny's.

Hilltop was handicapped by the absence of four first string players but still had enough to defeat Turcam, 7 to 4, behind Cross.

Leirey led with two hits as Hilltops ran up a 6-0 lead in the first three innings. A spectacular catch by Mike Melnick snuffed out a Turcam threat in the seventh.

Sickler and Duffy had two hits each for Turcams, B. Primo hit a double and Basius tripled.

Fans Seven as Vols Crush Rotary, 20-0

Charlie Boice pitched no-hit, no-run ball for five innings as the Volunteer Firemen overwhelmed Rotary, 20-0, in the Fraternal Youth League.

The former American Little League pitching and hitting star didn't issue a walk and fanned seven.

The Vols assaulted three Rotary hurlers for 12 hits and were aided and abetted by a myriad of walks and errors.

SEVEN RUNS clattered across the plate in the first inning and 10 more followed in the second. Then came comparatively tame rounds of two runs and one run in the next two turns at bat.

Bob Short led the hitting spree for the Vols with a single, double and triple in four trips. Boice clouted a triple and single in his own behalf.

Don Krueger and Paul Celuch also had a brace of hits each. Jimmy Cullum belted a triple.

Patterson Opens Major Campaign Against Heavies

New York, July 6 (AP)—Floyd Patterson's timetable calls for a heavyweight title bout with Rocky Marciano, June 1957—provided the Rock still holds the title. But will the 1952 Olympic champ be ready?

The 20-year-old Brooklyn Negro takes on his first full-grown heavyweight tonight in Archie McBride, a 185-pounder from Trenton, N. J. The 10-round match at 9 p. m. (EST).

Patterson has been in with heavyweights before but the biggest of them, Joey Maxim, weighed no more than 177 pounds. Pal Joey, of course, is the only fighter to beat Patterson in 23 pro starts and that decision, June 7, 1954, was disputed by most of the boxing writers present.

..ONE OF PATTERSON'S roughest nights was spent in the ring with Dick Wagner. He won the fight but was gasping for breath from body blows when it was over. Next time they met Patterson polished off Wagner in five rounds and chased him into retirement.

The burden of proof is all on Patterson, who must prove he can handle a man with a solid weight advantage over him. Patterson has won nine straight, stopping his last four opponents, since he lost to Maxim. In his "55 fights he has topped Willie Troy, Don Grant, Esau Ferdinand and Yvon Durelle. When he whipped Durelle at Newcastle, New Brunswick, June 23, Patterson weighed 170 as compared with the 164½ for his first pro bout, Sept. 12, 1952. At that rate it will take the youngster at least two more years to grow into the heavy class (over 175).

Reverse Transport

Columbia, S. C. (AP)—City Magistrate Bryan H. Lumpkin thought 13 defendants too many to transport to the courtroom, so he held court at the jail. Nine men and four women were in jail after a rowdy weekend party. Sentences ranged from $25 or 30 days to $200 or 60 days.

Wrens Rip Eagles, 14-1 In JCC Little League

Jimmy Bruckert Hurls 6-Hitter

Jimmy Bruckert pitched six-hit ball as the Wrens knocked off the Eagles, 14 to 1 in the JCC Little League yesterday at Forsyth Park.

The game was called because of darkness at the end of five innings.

While the Wrens were collecting 11 hits and scoring in every inning off S. Aiello and A. Tucker, Bruckert stopped the Eagles in every inning except the third when they bunched two hits and two runs for their only run.

The big blow for the Wrens was Don Van Wagenen's three-run homer over the left field fence in the fifth inning.

Van Wagenen, R. Whitaker and J. DeKoskie each had two hits for the Wrens. The six Eagle safeties went to six different players.

Bob Shelightner Signs Contract With New York Giant Farm

Port Ewen Youth Goes to St. Cloud, Minn. Next Spring

Terms Undisclosed; Batted .400 for KHS

Big Bob Shelightner, a .400-plus hitter with Kingston High this season, has been signed to a New York Giant contract, he revealed today.

Shelightner is scheduled to report to the St. Cloud, Minn., roster in the Northern League at the Giants' minor league training camp in Florida next spring.

It is not known whether a bonus was involved in the transaction.

THE BIG CATCHER was scouted by several major league teams, including the Giants, Tigers and Yankees before he was signed by Chick Genovese of the Giant scouting staff.

The signing took place at the Giants' tryout camp in Lodi, N. J., where Shelightner worked out with several hundred other candidates. Previously he had been followed for several games by a Detroit Tiger coach.

Big Bob caught four years of varsity ball for Kingston High and was a steady .300 hitter. This year he blossomed into the .400 ranks and demonstrated he could hit the long ball.

A SURE-HANDED receiver with a good throwing arm, he has the size and style that easily attracted major league scouts.

Shelightner said he had no plans for the present except to "keep playing and stay in shape." He is a member of the Jones Dairy squad in the City Baseball League and the Kingston Colonials in the New York-New Jersey Semi-Pro League.

Shelightner's battery mate—Bob Maines—is reported dickering with the Giants and was to appear in the Giant tryout camp scheduled today and tomorrow at Hudson.

Tebbetts, Walker Agree It Was All Just a Mistake

Cincinnati, July 6 (AP)—Birdie Tebbetts, the philosophizing manager of the Cincinnati Redlegs, said today his fight last night with hesitatin' Harry Walker of the St. Louis Cardinals proved his fisticuffs and wrestling were rusty.

Tebbetts and the Cardinal manager traded lefts and rights in the ninth inning of the ball game. They wrestled to the ground and rolled over and over.

"I GOT STEPPED on pretty often," Tebbetts grinned. "There must have been 50 guys on the field and they all must have stepped on me. It was one time I wished I was on the bottom of the pile."

Walker, who is getting a reputation as a staller around the circuit, also was good natured about the bout.

"It was just one of those things when we were all teed up trying to win," Walker said. "I'm not mad at Tebbetts and I know he's not sore at me."

Tebbetts, a philosophy major at college, agreed.

Nadlers Forfeit To Doblers

The rainfall and other circumstances combined to stop City League action after a half inning of play yesterday.

Nadlers had already forfeited to Doblers when the rains came when they showed up with only eight players.

An exhibition game was set up but rain quickly washed it out.

The "victory" gave Doblers a 2-1 record for the season and was Nadlers' third straight setback.

THE BIGGEST game of the early season is scheduled this evening at 6:15 between the undefeated New York Panthers (3-0) and Jones Dairy (2-0).

Bruce Bechtold and Bob Maines are the probable starters.

Saddler Ready For Tokyo Bout

Tokyo, July 6 (AP) — World featherweight champ Sandy Saddler raced through a fast workout today and announced he was ready for anything Orient titlist Shigeji Kaneko might throw his way.

"I'm in shape," Saddler told newsmen. "I'll be in there trying."

The two meet in a 10-round non-title go Friday night. Kaneko, Japan's knockout king with a style modeled after Rocky Marciano, has promised to wade in from the opening bell.

"I hear he is a good puncher," Saddler said. "I don't have any special plan for the fight. If he gets hit—that's just one of those things."

Saddler went two rounds with Jiro Sawada, Japan's No. 2 featherweight, hit the heavy bag for two, shadow boxed and exercised.

The Monmouth Park race track employs 60 vacationing students, representing 49 different colleges.

Jim Massuccio Checks Bagmen With Two Hits

Wimpys Win Over Gene's Bar, 8-2

Joe Massuccio stopped Kaplan Bag with two hits as Rapp's Express rolled to their seventh straight City Softball League victory, by a 3-1 score yesterday.

Massuccio permitted singles in the fourth and fifth innings. Bruce Hinkley cracked a pair of doubles in four trips to maintain his 500-plus batting average.

THE EXPRESS pitcher also aided his own cause with a pair of singletons. The two Kaplan safeties went to Dick Bezemer and Tom Morrissey.

Don Wolff pitched three hit ball as Wimpy's Grill overpowered Gene's Bar & Grill, 8-2, with a couple of three-run innings off Don Dyson. The losers scored their two runs in the fifth.

George Holstein clipped a single and triple and Jim Woods had a pair of solo shots for Wimpy's. Don Freer, Gene Nagele and Don Nagele collected the Gene hits.

AL HUNT pitched Subway Grill to a 9-4 victory over Chernys, yielding seven hits while the Grills were collecting 10 off Ed Cherny.

Frank Fede cracked a single and triple and Les Barringer had two singles for Subways. Kelder doubled and singled for Cherny's.

Hilltop was handicapped by the absence of four first string players but still had enough to defeat Turcam, 7 to 4, behind Cross.

Leirey led with two hits as Hilltops ran up a 6-0 lead in the first three innings. A spectacular catch by Mike Melnick snuffed out a Turcam threat in the seventh.

Sickler and Duffy had two hits each for Turcams. B. Primo hit a double and Basius tripled.

Fans Seven as Vols Crush Rotary, 20-0

Charlie Boice pitched no-hit, no-run ball for five innings as the Volunteer Firemen overwhelmed Rotary, 20-0, in the Fraternal Youth League.

The former American Little League pitching and hitting star didn't issue a walk and fanned seven.

The Vols assaulted three Rotary hurlers for 12 hits and were aided and abetted by a myriad of walks and errors.

SEVEN RUNS clattered across the plate in the first inning and 10 more followed in the second. Then came comparatively tame rounds of two runs and one run in the next two turns at bat.

Bob Short led the hitting spree for the Vols with a single, double and triple in four trips. Boice clouted a triple and single in his own behalf.

Don Krueger and Paul Celuch also had a brace of hits each. Jimmy Cullum belted a triple.

Patterson Opens Major Campaign Against Heavies

New York, July 6 (AP)—Floyd Patterson's timetable calls for a heavyweight title bout with Rocky Marciano, June 1957—provided the Rock still holds the title. But will the 1952 Olympic champ be ready?

The 20-year-old Brooklyn Negro takes on his first full-grown heavyweight tonight in Archie McBride, a 185-pounder from Trenton, N. J. The 10-round match at 9 p. m. (EST).

Patterson has been in with heavyweights before but the biggest of them, Joey Maxim, weighed no more than 177 pounds. Pal Joey, of course, is the only fighter to beat Patterson in 23 pro starts and that decision, June 7, 1954, was disputed by most of the boxing writers present.

..ONE OF PATTERSON'S roughest nights was spent in the ring with Dick Wagner. He won the fight but was gasping for breath from body blows when it was over. Next time they met Patterson polished off Wagner in five rounds and chased him into retirement.

The burden of proof is all on Patterson, who must prove he can handle a man with a solid weight advantage over him. Patterson has won nine straight, stopping his last four opponents, since he lost to Maxim. In his '55 fights he has topped Willie Troy, Don Grant, Esau Ferdinand and Yvon Durelle. When he whipped Durelle at Newcastle, New Brunswick, June 23, Patterson weighed 170 as compared with the 164½ for his first pro bout, Sept. 12, 1952. At that rate it will take the youngster at least two more years to grow into the heavy class (over 175).

Reverse Transport

Columbia, S. C. (AP)—City Magistrate Bryan H. Lumpkin thought 13 defendants too many to transport to the courtroom, so he held court at the jail. Nine men and four women were in jail after a rowdy weekend party. Sentences ranged from $25 or 30 days to $200 or 60 days.

Jimmy Bruckert Hurls 6-Hitter

Jimmy Bruckert pitched six-hit ball as the Wrens knocked off the Eagles, 14 to 1 in the JCC Little League yesterday at Forsyth Park.

The game was called because of darkness at the end of five innings.

While the Wrens were collecting 11 hits and scoring in every inning off S. Aiello and A. Tucker, Bruckert stopped the Eagles in every inning except the third when they bunched two hits and two runs for their only run.

The big blow for the Wrens was Don Van Wagenen's three-run homer over the left field fence in the fifth inning.

Van Wagenen, R. Whitaker and J. DeKoskie each had two hits for the Wrens. The six Eagle safeties went to six different players.

THE SCOREBOARD

By ED WILKS
(The Associated Press)

There were snickers when the Kansas City Athletics shelled out $50,000 to get Tom Gorman, Ewell Blackwell and Dick Kryhoski from the New York Yankees last March—but maybe it wasn't such a bad deal after all.

The A's took a sizeable risk in the deal and it looked worse when Blackwell and Kryhoski departed for the minors. But now Gorman has come through with the big payoff.

Only a so-so relief pitcher in three trials with the Yanks, Gorman has looked almost brilliant for the A's. He flashed his stuff again last night, putting down an eighth-inning rally and going on to beat the Cleveland Indians 4-3.

IT WAS THE 10th victory in the last 12 decisions for the A's—and Gorman, a 29-year-old righthander, has won two of them and saved five others. For the season, Gorman has made 29 appearances, nailing up a 4-1 record (the defeat came on an unearned Boston run May 13) and saving nine other games.

The bespectacled New Yorker, who won his chances with the Yanks off his minor league showing with the old Kansas City Blues, came on against the Indians with the score tied at 3-3 on Jim Hegan's homer off starter Bobby Shantz. The little lefty left with two on and two out and Gorman got Al Rosen on a foul pop with his first pitch to end the inning.

Gorman retired the Tribe in order in the ninth. Joe Demaestri and Hector Lopez, unlikely power sources, each homered to bring the A's home safe.

THE DEFEAT, suffered in the lone American League game scheduled, dropped the Tribe to third place, five percentage points behind Chicago. Both now are 5½ games shy of the Yankees.

In the National, Cincinnati edged St. Louis 5-4 after a ninth-inning free-for-all; Philadelphia defeated first place Brooklyn 5-4 and the New York Giants whipped Pittsburgh 11-1. Chicago and Milwaukee were idle.

At Cincinnati, police had to break up the brawl touched off by Managers Birdie Tebbetts and Harry (The Hat) Walker. Tebbetts got it going by complaining that the Cards were stalling.

When order was restored, Johnny Temple lined a single to score the winning run and cap a two-run rally by the Redlegs.

ROBIN ROBERTS drove in three runs against the Dodgers and gained his 12th victory with relief help. Andy Seminick's two-run homer in the eighth won it. Duke Snider hit his 28th homer for the Brooks, now 12 games ahead of Chicago.

The Giants had a pair of four-run innings while rolling past the Bucs as Johnny Antonelli won his seventh on a four-hitter. The New York lefty, who has lost 10, fannend 10. Willie Mays hit his 24th and 25th homers in the rout, accomplishing the two-in-one-game trick for the fifth time this season. He has hit eight homers in the past eight games.

Nationals Early Choice In All Star Contest

Chicago, July 6 (AP)—The power-packed National Leaguers today were made early favorites over the American Leaguers as opposing managers rounded out their 25-man squads for the 22nd All-Star baseball game at Milwaukee Tuesday.

The Americans hold a 13-8 edge in the mid-summer series and last year won at Cleveland 11-9 in a field day for batters.

Most experts believe another high scoring game will result this time with the Nationals equipped for home run bombardments behind such siege guns as Cincinnati's Ted Kluszewski and Brooklyn's Duke Snider, leading with 27 through the holiday weekend; Chicago's Ernie Banks with 21 and Milwaukee's Eddie Mathews with 20.

ON PAPER, the Americans cannot match this accumulated fence-busting power. Their top home run producer is New York's Mickey Mantle with 18.

And it is questionable also if the junior circuit's pitching staff selected by their All-Star Manager Al Dopez of Cleveland can surpass that of rival skipper Leo Durocher of the Giants.

Lopez has named nine hurlers, including four lefties, with a combined record of 76-43 through Monday's games. They are rookies Dick Donovan of Chicago (9-2) and Herb Score of the Indians (7-6); Whitey Ford (10-3) and Bob Turley (10-7) of New York; Early Wynn (11-2), Cleveland; Billy Hoeft (8-3), Detroit; Bill Pierce (5-5) Chicago; Frank Sullivan (11-7) Boston, and Jim Wilson, (5-8), Baltimore.

She was sitting in her home last night when a bolt of lightning struck the house and apparently followed the wiring inside. It then jumped to Mrs. McNamara and melted the metal band of her wrist watch. "It made my tongue tickle," she said. Otherwise, no ill effects.

Dismissal Upheld

San Francisco, July 6 (AP)—California's State Supreme Court has upheld the dismissal of Dr. Henry C. He was discharged in February, 1954.

Storm Hits Corning

Corning, N. Y., July 6 (AP)—City street crews continued mopping up today in the wake of a brief but vicious summer storm that smashed into this southern tier city last night and left about 25 per cent of its streets blocked by uprooted trees. Countless telephones were knocked out of commission, and many sections were blacked out by power failures. Radio station WCLI was off the air for more than an hour. Corning suffered considerable damage when Hurricane Hazel struck the area last fall, but observers said last night's storm did at least "twice as much damage."

Claims Honk Record

Baltimore (AP)—Henry Barnes, Baltimore's traffic engineer, figures drivers in this city are the hongingest he's ever seen—or heard. He estimates there are 250-million illegal horn toots in the city every year, most of them in the split second when traffic lights are changing. Police reported 137 arrests last year of drivers charged with illegal horn blowing.

Conrad, McHale In British Open

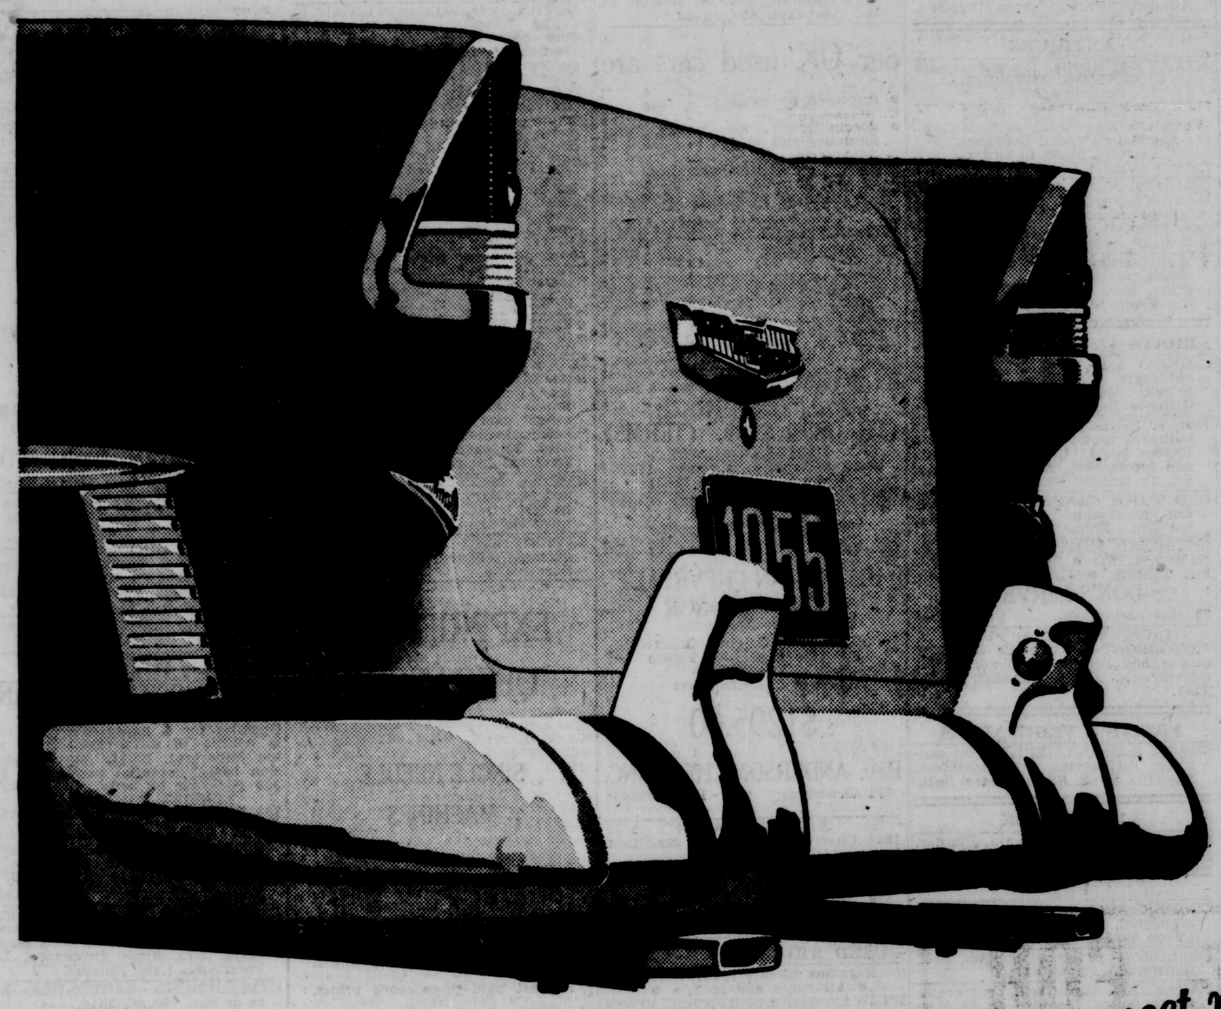

St. Andrews, Scotland, July 6 (AP)—A total of 94 qualifiers, including five Americans, wiped the slate clean today and began the 72-hole grind for the British Open golf championship.

They are all that remain of a starting field of 270. Two qualifying rounds eliminated the rest, including 10 Americans.

Now every shot over the ancient St. Andrews course is for keeps.

ONLY SIX of the qualifiers are amateurs and two are from the United States. They are Joe Conrad of San Antonio, Tex., the British Amateur champion, who got in with a 139 and Jim McHale, the former Walker Cupper from Philadelphia, who had a 143.

The three American pros who still are in the running are Ed Furgol of Clayton, Mo., the 1954 U. S. Open champion (142), Lord Byron Nelson of Roanoke, Tex., the former terror of the fairways who now plays for fun (145) and Johnny Bulla of Pittsburgh (147).

DUROCHER failed to name any of his own Giant pitchers as he bobtailed his staff to seven with a combined 65-39 record. His righthanders will be Don Newcombe of Brooklyn (14-1); Robin Roberts, Philadelphia (11-7); Gene Conley, Milwaukee (9-5), and Sam Jones, Chicago, (9-9).

The lefties will be Harvey Haddis, St. Louis (5-9); Joe Nuxhall, Cincinnati (8-5), and rookie Luis Arroyo, St. Louis (9-3).

Each manager is expected to wait until Monday until deciding on a starting hurler. But there will be little surprise if the assignments go to Newcombe and Wynn.

Steinmetz from the San Diego State College faculty because he refused to say whether he was a Communist party member. In a 6-1 decision yesterday, the court rejected Dr. Steinmetz' request for a writ compelling his reinstatement in the psychology teaching job he had held since 1930. He was discharged in February, 1954.

First Movie Thursday

The first of the summer outdoor movies will be shown on the Flatbush Reformed Church grounds Thursday, July 7, at 8:30 p. m. The feature will be "Return of October." The public is cordially invited to attend.

The Detroit Lions were the highest scoring team in the National Football League in 1954. They scored 337 points for an average of 28.1 per game.

Conrad, McHale In British Open

St. Andrews, Scotland, July 6 (AP)—A total of 94 qualifiers, including five Americans, wiped the slate clean today and began the 72-hole grind for the British Open golf championship.

They are all that remain of a starting field of 270. Two qualifying rounds eliminated the rest, including 10 Americans.

Now every shot over the ancient St. Andrews course is for keeps.

ONLY SIX of the qualifiers are amateurs and two are from the United States. They are Joe Conrad of San Antonio, Tex., the British Amateur champion, who got in with a 139 and Jim McHale, the former Walker Cupper from Philadelphia, who had a 143.

The three American pros who still are in the running are Ed Furgol of Clayton, Mo., the 1954 U. S. Open champion (142), Lord Byron Nelson of Roanoke, Tex., the former terror of the fairways who now plays for fun (145) and Johnny Bulla of Pittsburgh (147).

Illinois Oil

Eldorado, Ill. (AP)—Oil still is being found in Illinois. Two wells have been brought in on the North Eldorado oilfield. An oil leasing firm estimates initial production from the two wells at 7,000 barrels a day. They are producing at a depth of about 2,150 fet.

Mystery Bullet

Houston, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. Patsy Ruth Walker, 19, told sheriff's deputies she was sitting on the patio at the ranch where she worked, bent down to scratch a mosquito bite and found she'd been shot. A dootor removed a stray bullet. Nobody heard a gun fired.

From Missouri?

Hollywood (AP)—Crooner Bing Crosby is getting a kick out of showing his pals a telegram from Phil Tanner, a San Francisco night club man, who offered him a two-weeks contract to appear there. "And, if you make good, will hold you over extra two weeks," the wire read.

Storm Hits Corning

Corning, N. Y., July 6 (AP)—City street crews continued mopping up today in the wake of a brief but vicious summer storm that smashed into this southern tier city last night and left about 25 per cent of its streets blocked by uprooted trees. Countless telephones were knocked out of commission, and many sections were blacked out by power failures. Radio station WCLI was off the air for more than an hour. Corning suffered considerable damage when Hurricane Hazel struck the area last fall, but observers said last night's storm did at least "twice as much damage."

Claims Honk Record

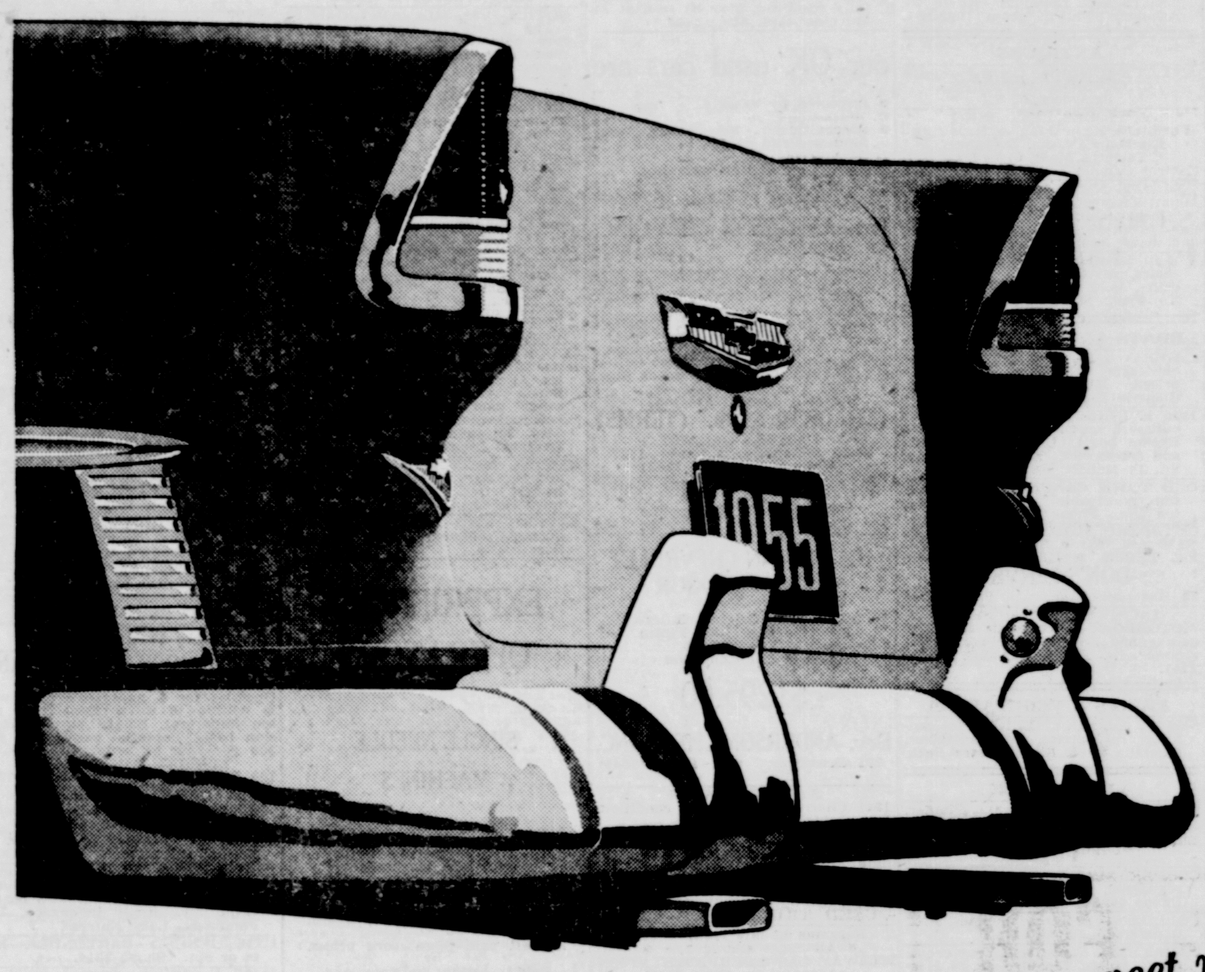

Baltimore (AP)—Henry Barnes, Baltimore's traffic engineer, figures drivers in this city are the hongingest he's ever seen—or heard. He estimates there are 250-million illegal horn toots in the city every year, most of them in the split second when traffic lights are changing. Police reported 137 arrests last year of drivers charged with illegal horn blowing.

Twin Pipes that play sweet music!

Chevrolet's "Super Turbo-Fire V8"* with 180 h.p.

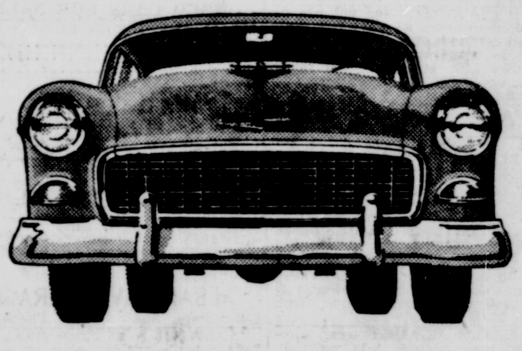

You can spot this one by the twin tailpipes. No matter what you drive, you're going to see twin-exhaust Chevrolets pulling away—in traffic, on the toughest hills, on the long straightaways.

. . . Unless you have a "Super Turbo-Fire V8"* of your own. And then you'll know what it's like to pilot the car that sets the pace for everything else—and doesn't pause to read the price tags!

What makes the Super scat? Chevrolet's superb valve-in-head V8, with the shortest stroke in the industry, the most power per pound, and the only 12-volt electrical system in its field—all this plus a four-barrel carburetor and free-breathing twin exhausts.†

Want to sample this silk-lined cyclone? Just give us a call, any day this week, and we'll be proud to show you just how hot a V8 can be.

*Optional at extra cost.
†Station wagon models have single exhaust pipes.

Officials Disagree

cials say that despite considerable difficulties Russia is making substantial progress in stepping up farm output and in turning out new jet planes and modern land weapons.

The surprise remarks of Communist party secretary Nikita S. Khrushchev at the American embassy's Fourth of July party in Moscow appears to have aroused conflicting interpretations from these two schools of thought.

KHRUSHCHEV'S statement that Russia would attend the Geneva meeting from a position of strength was seen by the first group of indicating that Russia's agriculture and industry are really suffering or Khurschchev would not have made it a point to deny that they are.

The explanation of the other side is that Khrushchev was being basically factual in telling the west that Russia is not nearly as weak as some recent speeches by westeners would have the world believe.

Two Boys Held

shots. The boys admitted the car thefts.

AN ALARM had been out for Cotter and Waddington since Saturday when they stole a (Cadillac) coupe in Taunton, intending to head for Florida. The stolen car was found abandoned Monday at Pawling, north of here.

Early yesterday, the two boys stole a (Mercury) sedan from the used car lot of Amenia Motors at Wingdale, Dutchess county. They attached stolen "suburban" license plates, which are used on station wagons.

STATE TROOPERS Harlan Reid and Carmen Paumbo spotted the sedan near Brewster, in Putnam county, which lies between Westchester and Dutchess, and noticed that it bore the wrong type of license plates.

The sedan sped away as the troopers approached, and they gave chase in their patrol car. The crash occurred a short time later in this Westchester county village. The troopers, who witnessed the crash, went to the aid of the victims. They then called for reinforcements, and soon 25 officers with 2 bloodhounds were combing the countryside for the fugitive teen-agers.

control of the convicts.

Dr. Harris said the seven had talked to other prison officials and reported they were well treated.

Two other prison officials seized by the convicts at the start of the trouble were freed without explanation. One of them, Boots Fain, of the prison athletic and recreation department, was badly beaten.

CAPTAIN of the guards Al Remboldt was freed unharmed.

The trouble developed without warning about 9:45 a. m. yesterday. The 33 prisoners, all of whom had been held in a segregation center reserved for the prison's toughest inmates, broke out of the center and converged on Bezzerides office in the same building.

Remboldt said Bezzerides and he were "holding court when the door popped open and three men seized Bezzerides and two men grabbed me and shoved me against the wall."

He said the convicts seized the control room and sent him to tell the warden's office that no one would be hurt "if you send Dr. Harris down for a conference."

"How they got into the control room, I don't know," Remboldt said.

Dr. Harris said the men at conferences during the day were demanding changes in disciplinary procedures and had presented a long list of grievances. They also set a deadline of 4 p. m. today for improvement of treatment by custodial officers but attached no "or else" terms to the deadline, he said.

Mudgett Is Named

Washington, July 6 (AP)—Maj. Gen. Gilman C. Mudgett, army information chief under Gen. Matthew B. Ridgeway and Secretary Robert T. Stevens, will take command of the 6th Infantry Division at Ft. Democrats Name Prendergast New State Party Head

New York, July 6 (AP)—Michael H. Prendergast, 41-year-old resident of Haverstraw, Rockland county, today was unanimously elected chairman of the New York State Democratic Committee.

The election took place at a meeting of the party's state committeemen and women in Hotel Biltmore.

Present were nearly 200 of the 300 state committee members, representing 150 assembly districts in the state's 62 counties.

PRENDERGAST was nominated by Francis Tierney of Washington county.

Prendergast, a former reporter for The Rockland County Times and once a policeman on the Rockland county force, is a captain of the Haverstraw Fire Department.

He is a member of the Knights of Columbus, the American Legion and the Ancient Order of Hibernians.

He will serve the unexpired term of Richard H. Balch, who resigned today to serve on the Public Service Commission, a position which he said was "not compatible" with a party post.

Legion Head

be distributed to the state for school construction.

"YOU AND I KNOW," said the Legion commander, "that the primary responsibility for establishing and maintaining an adequate educational system in America rests with the individual citizen, and with his community and state governments."

"But we also know this," he added. "The future leaders and citizens of America have a right to adequate education. They're going to get this education. If the local communities and the states can't provide the answer, then the pressure for a different approach will continue to build up."

ANOTHER speaker at today's convention session, S. M. Brownell of Washington, U. S. commissioner of education, in a prepared speech said the nation "is witnessing the most dramatic upsurge it has ever seen in citizen activity on behalf of education."

"No nation has even seen anything like the way the American people are studying their schools, and deciding on action programs for improving conditions for education," Brownell said.

Brownell predicted that the White House conference on education scheduled for Washington in the fall would accomplish much in the way of constructive recommendations of school problems.

THE WHITE HOUSE conference, made up of delegates representing different races, creeds, occupations and geographical locations, wil make recommendations to the President on pressing education problems.

Legion Commander Collins praised the NEA for its stand on combatting Communist subversion and its support of the policy of not employing members of the Communist Party in the nation's schools.

Collins said he agreed with the NEA that "our American schools should teach about communism and all forms of totalitarianism including the principles and practices of the Soviet Union and the Communist Party in the United States.

"Teaching about communism does not mean advocacy of communism," Collins added. "Such advocacy should not be permitted in American schools."

Buildup May Be Topic

Taipei, Formosa, July 6 (AP)—Top U. S. Air Force officers in the Pacific gather here tomorrow for conferences that will probably center on the reported buildup of Communist air power along the coast of the Red China mainland. Coming for talks with senior American officers and Chinese Nationalists are Gen. Laurence S. Kuter, commander of the Far East Air Force; Maj. Gen. Sory Smith, commander of the U. S. Pacific Air Command, and Brig. Gen. William L. Lee, commander of the 13th Air Force, based in the Philippines.

Chessman Gets Stay

Washington, July 6 (AP)—Supreme Court Justice Tom Clark today granted a stay of execution to Caryl Chessman, sex terrorist and convict-author who was scheduled to die July 15 in the gas chamber of San Quentin, Calif. penitentiary. A court spokesman, announcing the action, said the stay would remain in effect until the court has an opportunity to act on Chessman's petition for review of his case. That probably would be some time this fall.

GM Announces Split

New York, July 6 (AP)—Directors of General Motors Corp. have announced plans for a three-for-one split, subject to stockholders' approval at a special meeting Sept. 23 The surprise announcement came yesterday afternoon after the New York Stock Exchange had closed for the day. Even without news of the split, GM stock had risen $3.75 a share during the day, closing at $113.37.

Institute Is Told About 'Dodges' On Delinquency

Syracuse, N. Y., July 6 (AP) — A U. S. Children's Bureau official says there are "many transparent dodges" allowing communities to "substitute talk for action" on juvenile delinquency.

Bertram M. Beck, director of the bureau's special juvenile delinquency project, declared yesterday that a propoal to act against youthful crime frequently "develops into a battle of statistics" over whether the community has experienced an increase.

HE SPOKE at the first of three institutes on delinquency in New York state endorsed by the attorney general's office.

Beck said the statistics argument was "but one of the many transparent dodges allowing a community to substitute talk for action."

Another, he continued, was "that used by the pseudo-sophisticates who essentially say, 'There is no such thing as a delinquent — delinquents are children with problems. We have been conducting services and programs to meet those problems. Why should we do anything new?...'

"STILL ANOTHER dodge on a less sophisticated level is the 'beat them over the head' school of thought that assumes that a good kick in the pants or a taste of the 'old wood shed' is the single easy prescriptin to cure all delinquents."

About 80 police officers, judges and probation officers from the Albany to Rochester area are attending the four-day institute, which opened yesterday. Similar conferences are scheduled beginning next Monday in Buffalo and July 18 in New York city.

The insfitutes are sponsored by local individuals and groups. Their purpose is to establish a permanent program for reduction and prevention of delinquency by understanding it better.

Steel Wage Boost

opened the door to steel speculators who reap big profits when supply is short and demand is long.

IN ADDITION, the steel industry faces another problem in coming wage negotiations with John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers. These miners are employed in the "captive" coal mines owned by steel companies.

With steel already in tight supply, the plant shutdowns made things even tougher for steel consumers. To add to the pinch, the railroads last week hit the steel industry wtih their long-overdue freight car building program which will consume tremendous steel tonnages.

THE STRIKE aggravated further the mills' problem of maintenance repairs which had been delayed while facilities were being pushed to produce the utmost. It will be harder now to keep production at the near-capacity rate.

The reason for this is that the linings of iron and steel furnaces are hurt in a shutdown. Their life is shortened. Consequently they will have to be repaired, and be out of production sooner than they normally would.

Meanwhile, consumer inventories remain short and emergency tonnages are being bought from warehouses to tide consumers over until mill deliveries arrive.

More Men Victims

They gave these figures for declines in male death rates for cancer by site: Skin 38, stomach and duodenum 42, liver and biliary passages 47, lip 68 and mouth 60.

Among women, fatalities from cancer of the uterus declined 43 per cent but deaths from cancer of the breast rose 3 per cent.

Gebhardt and Handy urged that efforts be concentrated to check the steady rise of lung cancer fatalities.

Bathing Beach

the beach at North street and Delaware avenue.

On the subject of summer recreational facilities, the mayor said he was pleased at the reception given the refurbished zoo at Forsyth Park, and reported that attendance there was heavy.

The mayor also said this morning the street improvement program was progressing satisfactorily with the installation of new street lights on Foxhall avenue, and completion of construction work on Hurley avenue. He said work was continuing on West Union street.

Officials Disagree

cials say that despite considerable difficulties Russia is making substantial progress in stepping up farm output and in turning out new jet planes and modern land weapons.

The surprise remarks of Communist party secretary Nikita S. Khrushchev at the American embassy's Fourth of July party in Moscow appears to have aroused conflicting interpretations from these two schools of thought.

KHRUSHCHEV'S statement that Russia would attend the Geneva meeting from a position of strength was seen by the first group of indicating that Russia's agriculture and industry are really suffering or Khurschchev would not have made it a point to deny that they are.

The explanation of the other side is that Khrushchev was being basically factual in telling the west that Russia is not nearly as weak as some recent speeches by westeners would have the world believe.

Two Boys Held

shots. The boys admitted the car thefts.

AN ALARM had been out for Cotter and Waddington since Saturday when they stole a (Cadillac) coupe in Taunton, intending to head for Florida. The stolen car was found abandoned Monday at Pawling, north of here.

Early yesterday, the two boys stole a (Mercury) sedan from the used car lot of Amenia Motors at Wingdale, Dutchess county. They attached stolen "suburban" license plates, which are used on station wagons.

STATE TROOPERS Harlan Reid and Carmen Paumbo spotted the sedan near Brewster, in Putnam county, which lies between Westchester and Dutchess, and noticed that it bore the wrong type of license plates.

The sedan sped away as the troopers approached, and they gave chase in their patrol car. The crash occurred a short time later in this Westchester county village. The troopers, who witnessed the crash, went to the aid of the victims. They then called for reinforcements, and soon 25 officers with 2 bloodhounds were combing the countryside for the fugitive teen-agers.

control of the convicts.

Dr. Harris said the seven had talked to other prison officials and reported they were well treated.

Two other prison officials seized by the convicts at the start of the trouble were freed without explanation. One of them, Boots Fain, of the prison athletic and recreation department, was badly beaten.

CAPTAIN of the guards Al Remboldt was freed unharmed.

The trouble developed without warning about 9:45 a. m. yesterday. The 33 prisoners, all of whom had been held in a segregation center reserved for the prison's toughest inmates, broke out of the center and converged on Bezzerides office in the same building.

Remboldt said Bezzerides and he were "holding court when the door popped open and three men seized Bezzerides and two men grabbed me and shoved me against the wall."

He said the convicts seized the control room and sent him to tell the warden's office that no one would be hurt "if you send Dr. Harris down for a conference."

"How they got into the control room, I don't know," Remboldt said.

Dr. Harris said the men at conferences during the day were demanding changes in disciplinary procedures and had presented a long list of grievances. They also set a deadline of 4 p. m. today for improvement of treatment by custodial officers but attached no "or else" terms to the deadline, he said.

Democrats Name Prendergast New State Party Head

New York, July 6 (AP)—Michael H. Prendergast, 41-year-old resident of Haverstraw, Rockland county, today was unanimously elected chairman of the New York State Democratic Committee.

The election took place at a meeting of the party's state committeemen and women in Hotel Biltmore.

Present were nearly 200 of the 300 state committee members, representing 150 assembly districts in the state's 62 counties.

PRENDERGAST was nominated by Francis Tierney of Washington county.

Prendergast, a former reporter for The Rockland County Times and once a policeman on the Rockland county force, is a captain of the Haverstraw Fire Department.

He is a member of the Knights of Columbus, the American Legion and the Ancient Order of Hibernians.

He will serve the unexpired term of Richard H. Balch, who resigned today to serve on the Public Service Commission, a position which he said was "not compatible" with a party post.

Legion Head

be distributed to the state for school construction.

"YOU AND I KNOW," said the Legion commander, "that the primary responsibility for establishing and maintaining an adequate educational system in America rests with the individual citizen, and with his community and state governments."

"But we also know this," he added. "The future leaders and citizens of America have a right to adequate education. They're going to get this education. If the local communities and the states can't provide the answer, then the pressure for a different approach will continue to build up."

ANOTHER speaker at today's convention session, S. M. Brownell of Washington, U. S. commissioner of education, in a prepared speech said the nation "is witnessing the most dramatic upsurge it has ever seen in citizen activity on behalf of education."

"No nation has even seen anything like the way the American people are studying their schools, and deciding on action programs for improving conditions for education," Brownell said.

Brownell predicted that the White House conference on education scheduled for Washington in the fall would accomplish much in the way of constructive recommendations of school problems.

THE WHITE HOUSE conference, made up of delegates representing different races, creeds, occupations and geographical locations, wil make recommendations to the President on pressing education problems.

Legion Commander Collins praised the NEA for its stand on combatting Communist subversion and its support of the policy of not employing members of the Communist Party in the nation's schools.

Collins said he agreed with the NEA that "our American schools should teach about communism and all forms of totalitarianism including the principles and practices of the Soviet Union and the Communist Party in the United States.

"Teaching about communism does not mean advocacy of communism," Collins added. "Such advocacy should not be permitted in American schools."

Buildup May Be Topic

Taipei, Formosa, July 6 (AP)—Top U. S. Air Force officers in the Pacific gather here tomorrow for conferences that will probably center on the reported buildup of Communist air power along the coast of the Red China mainland. Coming for talks with senior American officers and Chinese Nationalists are Gen. Laurence S. Kuter, commander of the Far East Air Force; Maj. Gen. Sory Smith, commander of the U. S. Pacific Air Command, and Brig. Gen. William L. Lee, commander of the 13th Air Force, based in the Philippines.

Chessman Gets Stay

Washington, July 6 (AP)—Supreme Court Justice Tom Clark today granted a stay of execution to Caryl Chessman, sex terrorist and convict-author who was scheduled to die July 15 in the gas chamber of San Quentin, Calif. penitentiary. A court spokesman, announcing the action, said the stay would remain in effect until the court has an opportunity to act on Chessman's petition for review of his case. That probably would be some time this fall.

GM Announces Split

New York, July 6 (AP)—Directors of General Motors Corp. have announced plans for a three-for-one split, subject to stockholders' approval at a special meeting Sept. 23 The surprise announcement came yesterday afternoon after the New York Stock Exchange had closed for the day. Even without news of the split, GM stock had risen $3.75 a share during the day, closing at $113.37.

Institute Is Told About 'Dodges' On Delinquency

Syracuse, N. Y., July 6 (AP) — A. U. S. Children's Bureau official says there are "many transparent dodges" allowing communities to "substitute talk for action" on juvenile delinquency.

Bertram M. Beck, director of the bureau's special juvenile delinquency project, declared yesterday that a propoal to act against youthful crime frequently "develops into a battle of statistics" over whether the community has experienced an increase.

HE SPOKE at the first of three institutes on delinquency in New York state endorsed by the attorney general's office.

Beck said the statistics argument was "but one of the many transparent dodges allowing a community to substitute talk for action."

Another, he continued, was "that used by the pseudo-sophisticates who essentially say, 'There is no such thing as a delinquent — delinquents are children with problems. We have been conducting services and programs to meet those problems. Why should we do anything new?...'

"STILL ANOTHER dodge on a less sophisticated level is the 'beat them over the head' school of thought that assumes that a good kick in the pants or a taste of the 'old wood shed' is the single easy prescriptin to cure all delinquents."

About 80 police officers, judges and probation officers from the Albany to Rochester area are attending the four-day institute, which opened yesterday. Similar conferences are scheduled beginning next Monday in Buffalo and July 18 in New York city.

The insfitutes are sponsored by local individuals and groups. Their purpose is to establish a permanent program for reduction and prevention of delinquency by understanding it better.

Steel Wage Boost

opened the door to steel speculators who reap big profits when supply is short and demand is long.

IN ADDITION, the steel industry faces another problem in coming wage negotiations with John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers. These miners are employed in the "captive" coal mines owned by steel companies.

With steel already in tight supply, the plant shutdowns made things even tougher for steel consumers. To add to the pinch, the railroads last week hit the steel industry wtih their long-overdue freight car building program which will consume tremendous steel tonnages.

THE STRIKE aggravated further the mills' problem of maintenance repairs which had been delayed while facilities were being pushed to produce the utmost. It will be harder now to keep production at the near-capacity rate.

The reason for this is that the linings of iron and steel furnaces are hurt in a shutdown. Their life is shortened. Consequently they will have to be repaired, and be out of production sooner than they normally would.

Meanwhile, consumer inventories remain short and emergency tonnages are being bought from warehouses to tide consumers over until mill deliveries arrive.

More Men Victims

They gave these figures for declines in male death rates for cancer by site: Skin 38, stomach and duodenum 42, liver and biliary passages 47, lip 68 and mouth 60.

Among women, fatalities from cancer of the uterus declined 43 per cent but deaths from cancer of the breast rose 3 per cent.

Gebhardt and Handy urged that efforts be concentrated to check the steady rise of lung cancer fatalities.

Bathing Beach

the beach at North street and Delaware avenue.

On the subject of summer recreational facilities, the mayor said he was pleased at the reception given the refurbished zoo at Forsyth Park, and reported that attendance there was heavy.

The mayor also said this morning the street improvement program was progressing satisfactorily with the installation of new street lights on Foxhall avenue, and completion of construction work on Hurley avenue. He said work was continuing on West Union street.
